GC burglar alarms ok'd; control bill is deferred again

The Granite City Council Tuesday night approved a contract with a firm selected to install a citywide burglar alarm system, but deferred action on an ordinance regulating burglar alarms in the city.

The alarm systems regulating ordinance, which had been the topic of lengthy debate and placed on first reading, at the June 6 council limited and penalties would be fixed for persons using units which issue high numbers of false alarms.

One of the most controversial aspects was in the proposed means of enforcement as the ordinance, in its original form, gave the police and fire chiefs and city inspector the authority to enter any premises having an alarm system at any reasonable time upon "reasonable oral notice."

Alderman Charles Douglas repeated his objections to the enforcement provision, which he contended would give those officials too much power to enter private property, and suggested the enforcement section of the ordinance be deleted and a new section be added at a later date.

Alderman Fred P. Schuman voiced objections to what seemed a high cost for persons wishing to use alarm systems which connect to the city's control unit and to a provision in the ordinance providing for a $10 fine for each false alarm, beginning with the second false alarm.

The council agreed to amend the ordinance to allow one false alarm each three months with the $10 fine assessed only on subsequent alarms during that period, unless the chief of police waives the fine due to unusual circumstances.

Police Chief Ronald Veier explained the penalty for false alarms will force alarm users to keep them in good operating condition, but some businesses will, by nature, be subject to more false alarms than others and agreed the chief should have the authority to waive the penalty when justified.

Alderman Gerald "Jerry" Parnley noted that a section of the ordinance providing for an alarm user's permit did not specify how much the permit fee would be.

He said a high permit fee (Continued on Page 13)

Town tax levy up

A new Granite City Township tax levy of $18,420 — increased 14.8 per cent over last year — was approved by the Town Board in a regular meeting Tuesday night.

The new tax levy is $67,883 higher than last year's levy of $49,463 in the three major township accounts, and is based on a 1977-78 total budget of $1,273,170.

Levies that will provide tax funds needed to finance projected expenditures include $23,320 in the town fund, compared with $17,587 last year; $257,100 in the general assistance fund, compared with $249,850 a year ago, and $38,000 for the municipal retirement fund, up from $24,000 last year.

Tax requirements under the new levy for the town fund include $148,175 for expenses of operating the township assessor's office and $28,733 for compensation of town officers. It also provides $10,912 in tax funds for collection of taxes by the town collector.

Other items for which taxes were levied in the town fund include $3,400 for elections, $6,500 for town officers' expenses, $12,000 for insurance and $1,500 for contingencies.

In the general assistance account, the tax levy extends $176,500 for home relief and $56,100 for administration costs. Other items are $23,000 for hospitalization, $1,000 for burials and $500 for contingencies.

While the township's new budget total is $386,818 higher than the 1976-77 appropriation of

On and off the record School may be out, but drivers should keep alert

Summer's the time when drivers can relax their watch for school children.

Right?

Wrong.

"The school vacation period creates an illusion that motorists need not be as vigilant for children on bicycles or on foot," says State School Superintendent Joseph M. Cronin.

"Accident statistics say just the opposite," he adds.

Accidents involving school-age children as pedestrians and bicyclists totaled 1,996 last June, July and August, according to the State Department of Transportation.

Those accidents, Cronin said, killed 35 children and caused injuries to another 1,985.

"These statistics warn us that even though school is out of session for the summer, the dangers of accidents involving youngsters are just as real," Cronin said.

"The danger zones have shifted from the school building area to the residential neighborhoods and public recreation areas. Motorists must take appropriate precautions."

MORE THAN 200 SENIOR CITIZENS give their attention to guest speakers during an informational meeting co-sponsored by the Granite City Senior Citizen Council and the Southwest Illinois Area Agency on Aging. The meeting was held Wednesday morning in the cafeteria of Granite City High School North. Purpose of the meeting was to reach those seniors who are unaware of the many programs and benefits available to them.

Tax issue hearing today

Whether or not township collectors of the Quad-City area will be permitted to collect taxes locally to speed up distribution of funds to area tax agencies will hinge on the outcome of a Circuit Court hearing under way at Edwardsville today.

The hearing before Chief Circuit Judge Harold Clark was scheduled after nine township collectors — including those of Granite City, Venice, Nameoki and Venice Townships — petitioned the court Monday for an injunction to prevent the office of County Treasurer George Musso from mailing all tax bills, thus bypassing the township collectors.

While Judge Clark granted a temporary restraining order Monday, he arranged for a hearing today to consider further evidence and make an early decision so that tax bills will not be held up too long. Vera Hall, chief administrative assistant to Musso, told the court Monday that the tax bills had been put in envelopes, sealed and stamped and were to be mailed on Thursday (today).

Mrs. Hall told the court that instructions are included with the tax bills, notifying taxpayers to send their payments directly to the county treasurer's office. The injunction proceeding was filed Monday after the group of nine township collectors — unable to get their tax books from the county treasurer's office — went to Edwardsville in an effort to settle the issue with Musso. They were accompanied by Joe Hall, an attorney.

The collectors were told that Musso was out of the city and would not be back until June 23 (today). Deputies in the office, including Mrs. Hall, refused to give the collectors any information, they said.

Attorney Hill and the town collectors went to the office of State's Attorney Nicholas Byron where they met briefly with the state's attorney and were told that Musso's office was advised by Assistant State's Attorney Donald Smith. Byron summoned Smith to his office, but Smith also declined to discuss the issue with the township collectors except to say that he had provided certain legal information for Musso. He would not say what the information was, according to Hill.

The township collectors had made arrangements to collect taxes locally — as they have done for the past several years — but were unable to obtain their township tax books after the county clerk's office announced it had completed assessment and rate extensions. They said they had been informed that Musso planned to mail all Madison County tax bills for payments directly to his office.

Township collectors maintain that collections by the county treasurer result in long delays in distribution of tax revenues to the local taxing bodies because tax funds, as it is paid to the county treasurer's office, are placed on deposit to draw interest for as long as possible. In a similar incident several

Study garbage contract

Garbage collection in Granite City is almost sure to cost $50,000 more per year after July 1 bids presented at Tuesday night's Granite City Council meeting indicated.

The lowest bidder was Milam East, SCA Service, the current garbage and trash hauler for the city, which is requesting $398,000 for the first year of a three agreement, a 14 per cent increase over the previous contract of $348,000 for the year ending July 1.

Alderman Emerald Dawes, chairman of the sanitation committee, also reported there was a third bid which arrived too late to be considered, but which was higher than the Milam bid.

Dawes noted the low bidder seemed to be seeking a large increase in the contract price, and suggested the matter be returned to his committee for study and possible negotiation with Milam East.

Alderman Roy Poulos noted, "We are going to have to figure we are going to pay more for garbage collection. After the first year, they are talking about five per cent increases, which is not out of line the way labor, fuel and other costs are rising."

The Milam bid also calls for five per cent increases in the second and third years. Under the proposal, the city would pay Milam $398,000 the first year, $417,500 the second year and $438,750 the third year, a total of $1,254,250, or 20 per cent higher than the $1,044,000 in the previous three years.

The other bid presented was from Zycan Disposal, which is seeking a three-year contract of $472,000 each year, a total of $1,416,000.

Alderman Emerald Dawes, chairman of the sanitation committee, also reported there was a third bid which arrived

Levee board example of area's political problems

(Fifth of a series on politics in Madison County)
As noted in the preceding article, St. Clair County usually manages to outmaneuver Madison County in warring political "clout," despite the fact that the two neighboring counties are almost the same size in population and geography.

This can take a positive form, such as in garnering two of the top three statewide elective offices. Alan Dixon of Belleville is secretary of state and Dave O'Neal, also of Belleville, is lieutenant governor.

St. Clair influence also can be felt in a negative, and sometimes destructive way. An example is that county's state legislators' repeated ability to frustrate efforts to separate the East Side Levee and Sanitary District along the county line, to form two community-responsive districts.

The Madison County portion of the levee district, the Quad-City area, has remained hand-sufficient seven decades to St. Clair County portion, consisting mainly of East St. Louis.

The shakiness has not been visible but they nevertheless have been tangible, in the form of property taxation — often to pay for non-working jobs or non-competitive purchases or contracts.

Painfully tightening the shackles has been a pattern in which, for nearly all of the Levee District's long history, majority control has been wielded by board members residing in St. Clair County.

A largely cosmetic change, to form the Metro-East Sanitary District, has seen continued St.

Clair dominance. And observers say that certain actions in recent weeks have raised the possibility of a return to past eras' free-wheeling policies of political patronage and financial waste.

If the Quad-City area was an Evanston, with wealth overflowing, such a tax drain might not be felt as severely. But this community feels it cannot — and should not have to — afford the luxury of an extravagant, unproductive, unresponsive governmental agency.

Unfortunately, when the "chips are down," the Quad-Cities and Madison County have never been able to muster enough political influence to obtain a remedy from the entity that gave birth to the levee district — the Illinois General Assembly.

PSYCHIATRIC WING FOUNDATION is poured Tuesday afternoon in the first phase of an $18 million renovation and enlargement project at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Concrete for the foundation is pumped from the trucks at lower left through the pipe attached to the crane-like arm into waiting forms. The 13 foot, 10 inch foundation walls will support the 50-bed psychiatric addition. Other construction is also underway at various stages at the site, which is southeast of the Benny Wing built in the early 1960s.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN A. CHIAPPA. They were married in a garden ceremony at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ennis A. Thompson, Vincennes, Ind. Formerly Miss Denise Elaine Gaultney, the bride is a daughter of Mrs. Norma Joel Gaultney of Vincennes, and Robert V. Gaultney, Linton, Ind.

Denise Gaultney weds John Andrew Chiappa

Miss Denise Elaine Gaultney of Granite City, and John Andrew Chiappa, 2240 Adams St., were united in marriage in a garden ceremony conducted at 6 o'clock in the evening, at the home of the bride's grandmother Mrs. Ennis A. Thompson, 2702 Elberta Drive, Vincennes, Ind. Judge Jim R. Osborne officiated at the service on June 11.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Norma Joel Gaultney, Vincennes, Ind., and Robert V. Gaultney of Linton, Ind. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hazelwood, 2530 Parkway Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Chiappa, 3233 Wayne Ave.

Douglas Alan Gaultney, a brother of the bride, gave his sister in marriage, and also served as best man.

For her wedding, the former Miss Gaultney chose a full length ivory rosewood silk gown fashioned with a scoop neckline, traced with ivory rose pattern lace and embroidered with pearls.

The long full sleeves were gathered at the wrists with a band of matching lace and the lace repeated on the top of a gathered flounce, which encircled the hemline.

She wore a rose lace headpiece, etched with pearls to secure a melody length veil, and she carried a bouquet of white Sweetheart roses, baby's breath and white Sweetheart roses.

Miss Lesa Lynn Gaultney, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Cindy Lay and Miss Betty Durden, both of Vincennes, were the bridesmaids.

They selected gowns fashioned of cream color silk polyester embossed with a spring bouquet pattern of blue, peach and yellow flowers.

Their dresses were designed similar to the bridal gown with the exception of having short sleeves and a blue lace trim. Each attendant wore picture hats in blue, peach and yellow. They held white baskets filled with blue and peach carnations, yellow white mums, baby's breath and white Sweetheart roses.

Groomsmen were Michael Fields and Mark Dreiman, of Vincennes, and ushers included Robert M. Thompson, Indianapolis, and Charles Walker of Vincennes. Sandy Bowman of Sandborn, Ind., served as the ringbearer.

A reception followed the ceremony held in the gardens of the Thompson residence. The newly married couple are residing in Granite City following a two-week trip to Florida.

A 1975 graduate of Vincennes, Lincoln High School, the bride also attended Vincennes Business College. The groom is a 1971 graduate of South High School and is presently employed as a welder at Young Metal Products.

Guests attending the wedding from Granite City were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hazelwood and Joe, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Chiappa and Scott, parents of the groom, and Miss Cindy Hoelter, Miss Janet Hoelter, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Neelter.

United Methodist Day Sunday

United Methodist Day at Wilson Park will be held Sunday, hosted by the Methodist Churches in Granite City, Madison and Venice, is announced by the Rev. Paul Bryant, pastor of Trinity Methodist.

Each family is to bring a picnic basket dinner, table service and beverage for the 12:30 p.m. luncheon.

Beginning at 2 p.m. all will gather at the ice rink for a celebration of faith to also feature "Encounter," a talented musical group of young people from the Alton Main Street United Methodist Church. They will present a dynamic Christian witness through music and words, according to Rev. Bryant. A free will offering will be taken for the expenses, the minister added.

Those planning on attending are requested to bring sports equipment for a variety of outdoor games and arrangements are completed for an organized game time for the children, Rev. Bryant reports.

Participating churches are Trinity, N. M. O. K. I., St. Nicholas, Dewey Avenue, Good Shepherd, Madison and Venice.

Mrs. Mang hostess to pinocle club

The A to Z Pinocle Club met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Mary Mang, 2630 Edison Ave., for a social meeting.

Honors in the card games went to Mrs. Clara Winter, Mrs. Helen Krakowicki, Mrs. Emily Mejaski and the hostess. Also present were Mesdames Evelyn Ferro, Lucille Broyles, Lisa Bauer and Veronica Kula.

Mrs. Krakowicki invited the group to her home for the July meeting.

Girl Scouts attend all day outing

Members of Browne Troop 419 and Girl Scout Troops 321 and 683 attended the River Bluffs Scout Day on the Admiral, accompanied by leaders and guests.

Those attending were Janette Bowman, Lisa Green, Cindy Leathore, Sarah Zimmer, Tammy Gray, and leader Mrs. Linda Fanning and guests, Kenny Buford and Bobby Fanning of Browne Troop.

Troop 321 members, Amy Morley, Nannette Beck, Tara Converse, Laura Howland, Jane Lill, guests Sharle Smith, Carol Converse, John Converse, and leaders Mrs. Linda Beck, Mrs. Linda Fanning, Mrs. June Miller, Linda Presely and Mary Gregus.

Also members of Troop 683, Tina Fenoglia, Robin Fanning, Kathy and Terry Padgett and leaders Carol Padgett and Vicki Hergert.

Employees in assessor's office get pay boosts

Salary increases of about $100 per month were granted employees in the office of Granite City Township Tax Assessor Van De Cruse by the Granite City Council Tuesday night.

Warren DeCatur, chairman of the council's negotiating committee, said the pay increases may seem high, but noted the highest paid secretary on Cruse's staff still earns about $50 per month less than the lowest paid city hall secretary.

He said the increases are only fair to attempt to bring the pay scales closer and commensurate the higher pay may assist Cruse in keeping secretaries longer, noting the rapid turnover at the office has experienced.

Alderman Fred P. Schuman Jr., a member of the negotiating committee, noted Cruse's high expressed displeasure over the size of the proposed assessor's office in the new Granite City Township building now under construction.

Granite City Township Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer answered Schuman, saying the architect of the building had been told by Cruse's office three times to determine how much space the assessor needs in the new building and the size was determined from Cruse's specifications.

"I have been told my office is too big and his is too small. I am surprised that in my 12 years as supervisor, people coming in and discussing personal and confidential information to apply for general assistance have objected to the lack of space and privacy. Now each caseworker's area will be confidential.

Schuman suggested the Granite City school district may relinquish some of the space building and Hagnauer said the township agreed to give 2,000 square feet to the school district for seven years in return for the school district giving the township the land and Central School, which formerly occupied that site.

Hagnauer agreed to discuss the issue with the school district and the superintendent to determine if they would voluntarily give up some space to enlarge Cruse's office.

GC bill passed to meet flood insurance rules

An ordinance designating some areas of Granite City as flood-prone areas and regulating construction in these areas was passed by the Granite City Council Tuesday night in an effort to meet federal flood insurance regulations.

A flood hazard boundary map, prepared by the Department of Housing and Urban Development, specifies certain areas as subject to flooding by heavy rain or high river levels.

Construction of buildings or substantial improvements of buildings in flood prone areas must meet with federal requirements protecting them from flood damage.

Special city permits must be issued for construction in flood prone areas and information must be furnished on the elevation of the property and certification by a registered professional engineer or architect that floodproofing methods are adequate to withstand a flood.

Separate rules apply to the placement and anchoring of mobile homes in flood prone areas. Specifications also must be met for home repair or improvement projects when the cost of the work will exceed half the value of the house.

Penalties range from $25 to $500 for violations and a separate offense being committed each day the violation continues.

A public hearing on the program's guidelines is scheduled for Tuesday night and is expected to be called in the near future.

Alderman Fred P. Schuman questioned the validity of the flood plain area.

If 25th and Benton floods, the ward is going to be flooded," Schuman said.

City Attorney George Flicoff, assured that changes to the map can be made in the future, suggested that objections to the map be held up at this time and that the ordinance be passed to avoid the city having all of its federal funding cut off.

The aldermen then unanimously approved the ordinance.

Action Days begin for ERA

More than 20 persons from this area, advocating ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA), were among over 500 ERA supporters who participated Tuesday in an "Action Day" in Springfield.

The group marched around the downtown area for about an hour then was seated in the gallery to view the General Assembly proceedings.

They also met with State Representatives Joe E. Lucco (D-Edwardsville) and Jim McPike (D-NOW).

Tuesday's demonstration in the state capital was the second of two action days announced at the Illinois International Women's Year Conference, which concluded last week at Illinois State University at Bloomington-Normal.

Betty Friedman, author of "Feminine Mystique" and a widely-known leader of women's rights, announced the "Action Days."

At a press conference, Miss Friedman said that women of Illinois interested in ERA ratification would begin an "Action Days" program to demonstrate their dissatisfaction with Illinois legislators who have "failed to give women equal rights."

The first event occurred Father's Day when ERA supporters visited the homes of their local state legislators to present bouquets of roses to those who have given support to the Equal Rights Amendment, and to leave a recording at the homes of those who have voted against the legislation.

Members of the local Metro-East National Organization of Women (NOW) gathered at the home of Sen. Sam Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville).

No one answered the door or appeared to be at home, Mrs. Norma Mendoza of Granite City advised. A recording by Kristi Lems, composer of "The Ballad of ERA" and "Farmer," was left outside the Vadalabene home.

The group stayed at the residence over an hour and neighbors provided jugs of iced tea and lemonade to between 35 and 40 people taking part in the demonstration.

Mrs. Mendoza said a woman emerged briefly from the residence, picked up the recording and threw it into the street, yelling to the demonstrators to get away from the property.

The local organizer said none of the demonstrators were on the property.

At the home of State Rep. Everett G. Steele (R-Glen Carbon), the family was absent. However, the recording disc had to be thrown from an auto to the front porch, as two large police dogs were running loose near the house, Mrs. Mendoza said. She heard members of the family found the recording when they returned home.

Bouquets of red roses were delivered to the homes of Rep.

Lucco in Edwardsville and Rep. Jim McPike in Alton.

While in Springfield on Tuesday, Mrs. Mendoza said Rep. McPike and Rep. Lucco both expressed appreciation for the flowers. McPike stated the gift was "one of the nicest things to happen in a long time."

ERA proponents have been urging legislative support of the measure in a "relatively low key manner," Mrs. Mendoza said. The group has agreed to forge a more viable campaign for ERA ratification and stop being so "low key" in its approach, she explained.

Mrs. Wilma Stevens of Chicago, state president of NOW, is expected in this area Saturday and will be presented a check for $1,300, representing proceeds from Gloria Steinem's appearance at SIUE in May.

The funds will be used to help support the ERA lobbyist in Springfield, Mrs. Mendoza explained. The location of the presentation has not yet been finalized, she added.

News notes

In action Tuesday, the House voted 380-35 to block any government ban on the use of saccharin during the next 15 months. The bill also would require the Food and Drug Administration to spend $1 million for its own study of the artificial sweetener's possible cancer-causing effects.

If Congress refuses to pass President Carter's proposal for a standing gasoline tax, the administration will have to consider imposing mandatory limits on oil prices.

A similar to the one used during the 1973-74 Arab oil embargo, a White House energy adviser said Monday.

Gov. James R. Thompson Tuesday restored the death penalty in Illinois by signing legislation that passed the General Assembly last week.

Capital punishment will be allowed under the law for many categories of murder, including capital slaying of a policeman and mass murders.

Measures aimed at helping crack down on illegal traffic were sent Tuesday to Gov. James R. Thompson after being approved by the Illinois General Assembly.

A Metropolitan Drug Enforcement Groups would receive $1.2 million in state funds to pay half their operating expenses next fiscal year, under companion bills approved by the Senate.

The state money replaces federal funds provided by the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission, which is to be cut off June 30.

The Food and Drug Administration intends to ban all over-the-counter daytime sedatives, including such products as Cope, Conop, Quies, Nervine, Tranquin and Quiet World, FDA Commissioner Donald Kennedy said Tuesday.

General Assembly sedatives lessen anxiety or otherwise provide sedation, other than by causing drowsiness, he said, and users risk being drowsy during the day when they may be operating auto or dangerous machinery.

By a vote of 127-7, the Illinois House approved Monday a $363,000 appropriation for the St. Louis Metropolitan Airport Authority and sent it to the Senate.

Unless the federal government shows some signs of reversing its decision against building an airport in the Columbia-Waterloo area, many legislators think the agency will "go by the boards" next year.

Vandals damage 7 cars

Six residents of the 2500 block of Lynch Avenue reported early Tuesday morning that extensive damage was caused to their seven automobiles by vandals, who spilled blue paint along the sides of the vehicles, from front to back.

The vandalism occurred after 12:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Police investigating the vandalism found a can of paint and a pair of hedge shears lying in the front yard of a Lynch Avenue residence.

A large hole has been pierced in the side of the paint can, and the shears also had paint on them.

Officers stopped three juvenile suspects on bicycles in the 2500 block of Lynch Avenue at 4:15 a.m. Tuesday and took them to police headquarters.

It was discovered the bicycles were stolen and the machines were returned to their rightful owners.

Residents reporting paint-damaged vehicles were:

Harold Scarborough, 2515 Lynch Ave., a 1970 auto; Tom Hundley, 2519 Lynch Ave.; Robin Scarborough 2515 Lynch Ave., 1967 Mustang; Ed Rickert, 2561 Lynch Ave., 1973 Pinto; Theodore Kwiatkowski, 2569 Lynch Ave., a 1971 Capri and 1969 Ford, with paint also on the driver's seat; and Dan Lapinski, 2522 Lynch Ave., a 1974 Mazda.

The juveniles were released to their parents, pending further review by the juvenile officer.

Rotary, Rotary Anns install

The Granite City Rotary Club held its annual installation dinner last week at the Sunset Hills Country Club in Edwardsville, with 101 persons in attendance.

There was a social hour beginning at 6:45 p.m. and a buffet dinner.

After the dinner, everyone joined in the singing of an original Granite City Rotary song, composed by Al Froemling and Steve Bristol.

Upon completion, Bristol gave the presidential welcoming address to begin the ceremony.

Dr. George Wilkins Sr. and Dick Kerch presented a Paul Harris Fellowship in the form of a pin and medalion to Edward Meng for his outstanding contribution of service to Rotary over the years.

Froemling and Dick West officiated in the installation ceremony.

First to be installed were the officers of the Granite City Rotary Anns Club, the only such club in District 60; Gail Miller as vice-president, Mary Lee Matosian as secretary, Kathy Lombardi as treasurer, and Linda Bristol as past-president adviser.

New officers of the Granite City Rotary Club were installed for the coming year: Don Shaffner as president, Drew Karandjeff as first vice-president, Steve Bristol as second vice-president, Greg Schlegel as secretary, Bob Lombardi as assistant secretary, Paul Sodko as treasurer, Bob Maxwell as assistant treasurer, Ray Tavis as sergeant-at-arms, and Dan Partney as assistant sergeant-at-arms.

To complete the ceremony, Don Shaffner gave his acceptance remarks, emphasizing the new Rotary International motto "serve to unite mankind" on a local level.

Edwin McLean, retiring district governor from Belleville, spoke on "Rotary's Four Avenues of Service," focusing on the vocational service and its impact on the community to close the program.

Schmig, secretary; Dan Partney, assistant sergeant-at-arms; Don Shaffner, president; Paul Sodko, treasurer, and Drew Karandjeff, first vice-president.

Choirs director at BAC named to association post

A. Dennis Sparger, director of choral activities at Belleville Area College, has been elected to a two-year term as state president-elect of the American Choral Directors Association, after which he will serve as state president.

The American Choral Directors Association is the largest organization of its kind in the world. Embracing all aspects of Choral art, the association has 7,000 national members.

Sparger, a member of the BAC Faculty of Music since 1966, directs the College Choir and is the founder-conductor of the Chamber Singers and Community Chorus.

Two charged in break-in James C. Stewart Jr., 20, of 2201 E. 23rd St., and Joe I. Vandergriff, 19, of 2501 Washington Ave., were arrested Monday and were charged with burglary.

The two are accused of breaking into the mobile home of Al Williams, 200 E. 23rd St., lot 15, and removing a citizens' band radio, power pack and two microphones, a camera and a clock.

The camera and clock were recovered at Vandergriff's home and Vandergriff aided officers in recovering the other missing items, police alleged.

Chouteau budget hearing Monday

Chouteau Township budgets for town purposes totaling $211,500, and amended road and bridge budgets totaling $159,510 will be discussed during a public hearing at 7 p.m. Monday in the township offices at 825 Thorngate Drive, Mitchell.

Town budgets include $67,700 in the town fund, $49,800 in general assistance and $95,000 in revenue sharing.

Amended road and bridge budgets include $78,510 in the general road and bridge fund, $55,000 in the permanent hard road fund, $15,000 in the equipment and building fund and $7,000 for municipal retirement.

Central Baptist Bible School set

Vacation Bible School at Central Baptist Church, 3910 Highway 111, will be held for all ages from 7 to 9:30 p.m. each evening starting Monday, June 27 and continuing through Friday, July 1, according to the Rev. John Lamb, pastor.

Theme for the session will be "Christian Soldiers" and will feature stories about great warriors of the Bible, and activities will include contests between four groups, the minister added.

CYCLIST HURT

Timothy Baker, 18, of 302 McNair Ave., Madison, underwent surgery yesterday for a broken left leg and is recuperating in room 343 of St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Baker's leg was broken in two places when his motorcycle was struck by a car on Sken Street and McCambridge Avenue in Madison Thursday evening, June 16. Baker's father noted visitors and cards will be welcomed.

BURGLARY AT LOUNGE

A burglary at Eddie's Lounge, 2000 Nameoki Road, occurring between 2 a.m. and 4:30 a.m. Wednesday, was reported by the operator, Eddie Messinger. Entry was gained by smashing a window and crawling through the opening. An inventory is to be conducted to determine what was taken.

Burglary charged

Carl B. Graham, 18, of 2914 1/2 Palmer Ave., was charged Monday with burglary for allegedly breaking into Crisman Motor Co., 2805 E. 23rd St., Saturday.

Police responded to an alarm at the dealer's office and alleged seeing Graham in the doorway. He was arrested and officers found a stereo on the floor and the desk ransacked.

BOWLER IS APPOINTED
Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City Tuesday night appointed Alderman Paul Ray Bowler as chairman of the city council's finance committee. Former chairman Gerald "Jerry" Parnley resigned from the committee due to other commitments.

STEALS CONSOLE TV
Mrs. Ada McManaway, 3106 Kirkpatrick Homes, who is in the process of moving out of town, reported at 8:35 a.m. Wednesday that a burglar broke a window and entered her apartment, taking a console television, valued at $130.

Agree on user fees for dam

A nationwide system of waterway user fees was approved yesterday by the Senate, as the price for backing the new $421 million Mississippi River lock and dam at Alton.

Both the user fees and the Alton project face an uncertain fate in the House and on President Carter's desk. Under the Constitution, revenue measures must originate in the House.

Currently considering a nationwide public works bill, but without the Alton project and without user fees, the House must now decide whether to include them, reject one while accepting the other, or delete both proposals.

Barges could lose 10 to 20 percent of their traffic to the railroads, Sen. John C. Danforth (R-Missouri) has said. Sen. Pete V. Domenici (R-New

CAR IS STOLEN
The silver 1973 Ford Mustang two-door auto of Edward Henderson, 2020 Alton Ave., Madison, was stolen from 25th Street and Madison Avenue between 11:45 p.m. Monday and 12:15 a.m. Tuesday. The car has blue pin stripes.

AUTO BURGLARY
Doris Edwards, 2616 Center St., reported a citizens band radio in a slide mount and a tapeplayer were stolen from her auto while it was parked in a lot at 1838 Delmar Ave., prior to 5:10 p.m. Tuesday.

DAMAGED BY TREE
Steve Dusky, 2520 E. 24th St., reported at 11:30 p.m. Tuesday that a tree, allegedly on city property, fell across the front of his 1974 van during a rainstorm, causing three dents in the vehicle.

PARKED CAR LOOTED

Four injured on Madison

Four persons were reported injured at 5:05 p.m. Wednesday when autos driven by Sam Manogian, 45, of 6 Country Lane Court, and Ralph C. Henderson, 19, of 432 Nameoki Road, collided in the 2900 block of Madison Ave.

Manogian was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital, suffering a two-inch cut to the forehead and abrasions to the chest.

Mrs. Beverly B. Manogian, 43, a passenger, was admitted for observation with a head injury and was reported today in satisfactory condition.

Nelson C. King, 54, of No. 8, Frontenac, also a passenger in the Manogian car, suffered a nosebleed and abrasions to the left knee and right lower leg. He was treated and released.

Henderson, who reportedly had minor injuries, was issued a traffic citation charging improper lane usage.

MRS. WILSON DIES
Mrs. Katherine Wilson, 84, of Colonial Haven Nursing Home, died at 10 a.m. today at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Bob Thomas Memorial Mortuary will be in charge of the arrangements, although there will not be visitation here.

Gravestone services will be at the Wyuka Cemetery, Lincoln, Neb.

CHARGES DISMISSED
In Granite City court Monday, charges of unlawful use of a weapon and disorderly conduct were dismissed against Gordon Bailey, 2888 Pershing Blvd. Authorities released guns when he was arrested April 22.

Windows broken, two arrested

Retha Cory, 25, of 64 Venice Homes, Venice, and David E. Owing, 22, of 2552 Revere's Route, were arrested Monday at West Pontoon Road and Route 3 and were charged with criminal damage to property.

Granite City police allege that Mrs. Cory called the police station at 11:50 p.m. Sunday and said she had just broken out the windows at the Granite City School of Beauty Culture, 1815 Edison Ave.

Officers checked and found two plate windows, about 5 feet by 4 feet, at the front of that building had been broken by several pieces of asphalt thrown at them.

A search for Mrs. Cory was started, resulting in the two arrests nearly two hours later.

Rites for brother of GC residents

Funeral services were conducted at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at St. Simon and Jude Catholic Church, Gillespie, a brother of Granite City residents.

He died at 12:05 a.m. Monday at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Marjorie Trotter, two daughters, two brothers and three sisters including Clara Parker and Catherine Parker, both of Granite City.

Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Gillespie.

7 traffic charges against youth, 16

Kenneth W. Jolly, 16, of 2541 Ivy Lane, was charged with seven traffic violations when the motorcycle he allegedly was driving with a passenger on board was halted by police at 2300 Lynch Ave., at 1:25 p.m. Tuesday.

Jolly was charged with fleeing and attempting to elude police at Pontoon and Maryville roads and Woodlawn Avenue, speeding at Maryville Road, and having no motorcycle classification, no headlight, no valid registration, no eye protection and no city license.

Tim Jones, 3728 Nameoki Road, the passenger, was charged with no eye protection. Both must appear for a hearing July 11.

Armenian Youth ball

The 44th annual ball, scheduled at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, will climax the national convention of the Armenian Youth Federation of America (AYF), being hosted for the first time in the organization's history by the Granite City Armenian community.

The ball is open to the public and will take place at the Hospitality Inn in Earth City, Mo., located between St. Louis and St. Charles.

Music for dancing will be provided by the Armenian All-Star Band, a group of musicians from different states, whose expertise on various instruments is considered outstanding, according to the local hosts.

Rites for father of Madison woman

Nicholas "Nick" Ramach, 87, of Staunton, father of Mrs. Mary Robbins of Madison, died at 7 p.m. Monday at St. Joseph Hospital, Highland.

He had been employed for 35 years in the Mount Olive Mine prior to his retirement.

His wife, Mrs. Anna Yurek Ramach, died Nov. 30, 1971.

Other survivors include two other daughters, five sons, one brother, nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. today, Thursday, at a Staunton funeral home. Burial was in Memorial Park Cemetery, Staunton.

Tickets for the ball, costing $5 each, may be obtained from any AYF member, or by calling Nelle Bogosian at 451-4853, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Several hundred people are expected to attend the gala ball, and chartered buses have been arranged from many locations. It was learned.

The week-long convention, which officially concludes Monday, has about 100 formal delegates attending.

The Granite City AYF Chapter is one of the organization's founding groups, dating back to 1933. The federation has over 5,000 members nationwide and in Canada.

Park Board to get estimates on pool cost

The Granite City Park Board continued Wednesday night discussion of plans for construction of a new swimming facility to replace the existing pool at Wilson Park.

Overall costs of different types of pools are to be presented at the next regular meeting on July 6, when further plans are to be considered.

Approval was given for construction of a 25-foot and eight-sided concession stand near Fehling Road baseball diamonds at Wilson Park.

Permission was given to Harold Yount to utilize the Wilson Park Ice Rink on Aug. 13 to conduct a late-winter tournament starting that day at 7:30 a.m. and concluding about 4:30 a.m.

File assault charge after gun is fired

Roger D. Clements, 30, of 2508 Kirkpatrick Homes, was charged with aggravated assault after he allegedly discharged a shotgun on the front porch of his home early this week.

The firing of the shot, allegedly accompanied by a threat voiced about a Pontoon Beach man, climaxed several disturbances in the housing project Sunday night, including one incident where one man threatened another with a golf club and the victim of that assault allegedly later threatened the first man with a baseball club.

Police were told a man was walking in the 2500 block of Kirkpatrick Homes with a shotgun. Witnesses alleged Clements was seen on the front porch of his home with a gun and threatened to shoot a Pontoon Beach man.

Clements allegedly said when the man entered Clements' apartment, he would shoot him "like this," and then fired a shot into the air.

Police found a shotgun with two live shells and one spent shell on the kitchen table of Clements' home, they said. A golf club also was found in the same back.

Clements was arrested at a Nameoki Road tavern a short time later and was released on his own recognizance by Associate Judge A. A. Matosian.

A Junior Olympic basketball team, comprised of area players including GCHS North's Dennis Page and coached by Bill Moyer of the St. Louis Celts, overcame an initial obstacle last night in Kentucky by beating Indianapolis 63-49 in quest of a national title.

Page and teammate Dave Enger of Cahokia tied for top scoring honors, each garnering 16 points.

Ranked eighth nationwide as a junior team, the local squad will play at 1 p.m. tomorrow against the winner of today's Oklahoma-Alabama contest. Oklahoma is ranked first in the nation.

A win tomorrow would advance the team into semi-final competition Saturday afternoon, and semi-final victory would place the team into the national championship game Saturday night.

Three charged with watermelon theft

Three Granite City men were released on $50 cash bond each on a charge of theft at 11 p.m. Tuesday in Madison.

Due to appear in court at 9:30 a.m. on July 18 are Gary G. Smith, 21, of Box 1175, Rural Route Two; Jack R. Nipper, 21, of 1484 Iowa St.; and David Dodson, Box 887, Rural Route Two.

J. W. Apperson, an off-duty Granite City Police officer, saw three men near Schermer Brother's supermarket where an outside sidewalk display of watermelons is located.

The officer allegedly observed three watermelons on the floor of the men's car as he pulled his truck in front of their car to prevent them from leaving.

The watermelons are valued at $2 each.

CONGRATULATIONS IN ORDER. Rep. George Ryan, minority leader of the Illinois House of Representatives, congratulates Rep. Everett G. Steele (R-Glen Carbon), left, upon passage of his Out-of-State Truck Fueling Bill, which is expected to bring over $30 million per year in additional revenue for Illinois Highways. The measure has passed both House and Senate, and is before the governor for final approval. The legislation requires out-of-state trucks to purchase fuel and pay motor fuel tax in Illinois, proportionate to miles traveled on Illinois highways. A similar law in Iowa has brought that state $23 million per year in new revenues from out-of-state sources. Illinois has twice the amount of roads as Iowa.

Mrs. Lucille Hurcoy dies

Mrs. Lucille M. (Hans) Hurcoy, 63, of 3015 Warren Ave., ill for one month, died at 6:25 p.m. Tuesday at her home. Born in Edwardsville, Mrs. Hurcoy resided in Granite City since 1937.

Survivors include her husband, George Hurcoy Sr.; three sons, Michael, Wayne and Bill Hurcoy, all of Granite City; two daughters, Mrs. Russell (Rosemarie) Well of Granite City and Mrs. Richard (Priscilla) Evans of Collinsville; two brothers, Eugene Hans of Granite City and Lester Hans of Missouri; one sister, Mrs. Christine Handsey of Edwardsville; and 13 grandchildren.

Two sons preceded her in death. Granite City Police Patrolman George Hurcoy Jr. died in 1975, and Joseph Hurcoy died in 1968.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Albert Hertel dies at 86

Albert F. Hertel, 86, of 2341 Lynch Ave., became ill at home and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was pronounced dead upon arrival at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. He had been ill eight years.

Born in Germany, Mr. Hertel came to this country when he was about two years old.

Mr. Hertel was employed as a conductor for Illinois Railroad and had worked on the street cars running from Granite City to St. Louis, for many years prior to his retirement.

A member of St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ, Mr. Hertel also was a member of Masonic Lodge 885, Low Twelve Club and New Hope Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Carrie (Kogel) Hertel.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Mrs. Lillian Daily dies

Mrs. Lillian Daily, 38, of Dahlgren, Ill., formerly of Granite City, died at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Mount Vernon (Ill.) Hospital.

She was born in Mount Vernon and resided in Granite City 12 years prior to moving to Dahlgren seven years ago.

Mrs. Daily was employed as a registered nurse at St. Elizabeth Hospital while residing in this area.

She was a member of the Middle Creek Baptist Church. Survivors include her husband, Willard Daily; three children, Rhonda, Kathy and Steven Daily, all at home; and her mother, Mrs. Morgan of Mount Vernon.

Trades Council nominations

The Tri-City Trades and Labor Council renominated all but one of its incumbent officers and trustees during a meeting last week. The delegates also endorsed the 1977 United Way Campaign.

Nominated for new terms are Edwin Reiske, president, now serving his 25th year; Bob Walkenback, vice-president;

Elmer Naud, secretary; Helen Peters, financial secretary; James Arnette, treasurer;

George Guggus, guard. Scheduled for election as trustees are Marshall Testerman, Gene McGovern and Theodore Thomas. Thomas is the only candidate who is not an incumbent.

The election will be held July 20.

Lacy Wallace was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Mrs. Mefford suffered a bruise to her left shoulder and went Tuesday morning to St. Elizabeth Hospital where x-rays were taken and she was released.

Epsilon Beta Chapter ranks 12th in country

The Epsilon Beta Chapter of Pi Omega Pi National Honor Society for Business Education at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has been ranked number 12 of the campus chapters throughout the United States.

According to this year's SIUE Chapter President Roberta Anderson of Highland and Phyllis Chilovich of Mount Olive, newly elected president, the SIUE chapter was ranked 12 by the national headquarters out of 143 participating university chapters due to its reports, projects and publications.

Mrs. Anderson said that during the past year, the organization held various fund-raising events with proceeds used to send members to the national Pi Omega Pi convention in Philadelphia during December. Part of the money was also used to fund an annual $50 award during Honors Day at the University.

The Pi Omega Pi award this year was presented to Beverly McLean of East Alton for her outstanding grade-point average in business and education classes.

Other projects sponsored by the campus chapter during the year included collecting food for a needy family at Thanksgiving, making Christmas wreaths for the business education offices at SIUE and sponsoring a student teaching seminar to prepare student teachers in business education for their classroom experience.

According to Mrs. Anderson, the chapter's members faced tough competition to achieve the high national ranking. She said that since SIUE is a commuter university, members often had to drive many miles to attend meetings and participate in projects.

To be accepted into Pi Omega Pi, business education students must have a four-point grade average on a five-point scale in their business and education coursework.

Other student officers for this year's high-ranked chapter are: Jacqueline Busby, vice-president, of East Alton; Annie L. McCraney, secretary, of East St. Louis; and Shirley Green, treasurer, of Edwardsville. Business Professor Willie O. Pyke of Edwardsville, served as faculty adviser.

Other members are: Earlene Haas, Trenton; Larry Harley, Granite City; Valerie Leidner, Mulberry Grove; Joy McGuire, Troy; Beverly McLean, East Alton; Laura Aerne, Troy; Fred Peters, Belleville; Margaret Ralch, Eureka; and Elizabeth Retherford, Jerseyville.

Women of the Moose hosts installation

There were 250 members and guests who attended the installation of newly elected officers of the Women of the Moose, held at the Moose Hall, 19th and Adams streets, during the weekend.

Officers installed for the 1977-78 chapter year include: Para Single, senior regent; Ernest Von Nida, junior graduate regent; Pat Lipscomb, junior regent; Edna Miller, recorder; Geraldine Spence, treasurer.

Appointive officers were: Veronica Wilson, guide; Mildred Walker, associate guide; Mary Lee Busler, Argus; Ellen Pabst, sentinel and Betty Crone, musician. Installing officers included: Mildred Votoupal, regent; Marian Lipscomb, guide; Nancy Hamilton, chaplain; Raleigh Arms, scribe; Doris Bernal, pianist and Jean Teller, chairman of the installation dinner.

Those serving as installing escorts were: Pauline Presley, Margaret Dowdy, Shirley Schmid, Alice Skaggs, Donna Westbrook, Sue Goodman, Margaret Hester and Marcela Bruce.

Members of the College of Regents were dressed in their caps and gowns and also participated in the evening program. They were: Marie Hampton, Virginia Severs, Rose Halbert, Marian Lipscomb, Mildred Votoupal, Edna Miller, Jean Teller, Margaret Housman and Nancy Hamilton.

Introduced as chapter committee chairmen for the ensuing year were: Benita Boyd, publicity; Anna Kuzma, Moosehart; Nancy Rogers, library; Doris Master, social service; Louise McClannahan, child care; Rosella Mead, hospital; Bernadine Rollin, Moosehaven; Billie Begg, Academy of Friendship; Helen Davis, star recorder; Marian Lipscomb, ritual; Adrian Copeland, membership and Nancy Hamilton, College of Regents.

Special committees will be headed by Edna Miller, Alice Skaggs, Ernest Von Nida, Mildred Votoupal, Velma Finny, Ellen Pabst, Rosella Mead, Karen Anders and Marian Lipscomb. It was announced.

During the evening Ruth Stover received her past regent ring and Mrs. Ernest Von Nida was presented with a past regent jewel.

The officers of the Loyal Order of the Moose, 272, assisted with the ceremonies and Mrs. Teller served a dinner after the program.

Experience to guide Spalding in championship race

By KEN THOMPSON
Press-Record Staff Writer

Twenty-four years ago, a young man named Wib Spalding climbed into a stock car, beginning a racing career considered by many to be one of the most successful ever to come out of this area.

This Saturday night, at the age of 43, Spalding will sit behind the wheel in the well-known No. 44 late model stock car awaiting the drop of the green flag and the start of the 50-lap midseason championship race on the half-mile dirt oval of Tri-City Speedway.

A two-time feature race victor this season in the Gateway Auto Racing Association-sanctioned programs, Spalding is the current leader in the point standings with 1,465 points.

Following is defending track champion Russ Wallace of Arnett, Mo., with 1,315 points. In third is former short-track champion Kenny Shrum of St. Charles, Mo., with 1,130, and then C. C. Corbin of East Alton with 1,045.

Bill Myers, last year's St. Charles Speedway champion, is in fifth place with 1,040 points, and Jerry Sifford of Imperial, Mo., also a two-time main event victor here this season, is sixth with 955. Len Gittemeier of St. Charles, Tri-City's 1974 track titlist, holds down seventh position with 855 points.

Driving in a championship race is not new to Spalding who last claimed the late model division title at Tri-City in 1973. Raising on the local speedway's dirt surface with area fans cheering him on also is familiar to him.

One of the original designers, along with owner, Garland Farless, of Tri-City Speedway, Spalding has known many glorious moments on the track's surface in stock car, super-sprint and midget auto racing.

Perhaps as he sits Saturday night in his race car with the throbbing engine ready to unleash its fury, Spalding's thoughts will drift back to the time when it all began.

Sponsored by Charlie Warner, a Madison grocery store owner, Spalding began his career on the short-track at Belleville in 1953 and the following year ventured to Godfrey Speedway where he was nearly laughed off the track because of his Chevrolet powered stock car.

"Dodges and Fords were the big powers in stock car racing then," recalls his wife Rose, whom he married in 1951.

"Wib never won a feature that season but captured many heat races and semi-main events, causing those who laughed earlier to repeatedly request that Wib's car be checked to see if it was legal."

He won his first main event on the dirt at Evansville, Ill., in 1955 and also competed at the old Walsh Stadium in St. Louis.

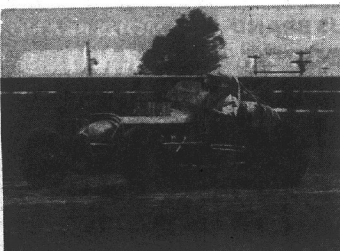

A RECORD YEAR — 1961. Described by racing experts that year as "an item of fierce machinery," this modified race car driven by Spalding was built in the Venice garage of Chuck Sheets and claimed 27 feature wins at area tracks.

AMONG THE BEST: In 1966, Spalding began a four-year campaign in national sprint car competition on the U.S. Auto Club circuit with such drivers as Ralph Ligouri, Bob Tattersall, Chuck Allen, Gary Bettenhausen, Sam Sessions and Mike Mosley. Spalding placed seventh in 1968 in USAC season point standings.

ENROUTE TO VICTORY. The Pontoon Beach resident won his first USAC feature race at Salem, Ind., defeating Charlie Masters, Don Thomas, Bruce Walkup and Bob Pratt in the process.

1977 WINNING FORM. Shown enroute to capturing a second late model stock car feature race this season at Tri-City Speedway, Spalding has the pole starting position in his Chevrolet Camaro this Saturday.

The year 1956 saw a major change in racing cars in this area. Although the old coupes were still popular, the modified stock cars made their debut that season.

Discarding factory-built bodies and frames, car owners were allowed to build their own race cars, starting with the frame and ending with home-made bodies.

Spalding was one of the first drivers in this area to use an open-wheeled modified race car and developed the technique of riding "the high groove" around the track (close to the outside wall).

"With the car being so much lower to the ground and the wheels visible," explained Mrs. Spalding, "Wib could watch the car's front right tire and run it as close to the wall as possible."

Three years later (1959), the then Madison resident claimed his first track championship at St. Charles, Mo., Speedway on the strength of 14 feature race wins.

Working as an automobile salesman for a Buick-Pontiac dealer, Spalding made racing a three-night per week affair at Springfield, Godfrey and St. Charles.

Recalling one of Spalding's most memorable victories, Mrs. Spalding related that in 1959, at Dayton, Ohio, Wib was leading a 150-lap championship race when his fuel line broke on the 144th lap.

"His car began slowing down considerably with each passing lap and he all but pushed it across the finish line.

"There was a dispute over the finish, but officials ruled that Wib had lapped the entire field of cars during the race so he was declared the winner."

Spalding repeated in 1960 as St. Charles Speedway champion and captured the Illinois-Missouri Racing Association title with 33 feature wins.

In 1961, Spalding and Garland Farless saw their plans for a racing track in the Quad-Cities become a reality when the gates of Tri-City Speedway opened to competition.

Built in a garage of Chuck Sheets of Venice, Spalding's first super-modified race car appeared on the track, sporting a tall fin, a Corvette sports car engine and three carburetors which helped the engine develop more than 240 horsepower.

The vehicle broke a track record in 1961 at St. Charles the first time out, and went on to claim 27 feature wins that season.

The next three years of racing also were rewarding for Spalding.

He defeated a field of 30 cars representing 10 Midwestern states in a 200-lap feature race, drove to victory repeatedly at Tri-City, and claimed the Heart of America Grand National racing title after starting at the year of a 60-car field in Kansas.

The win gave Spalding his lucky 13th career championship.

In 1964, he repeated as Illinois-Missouri Racing Association champion, and two years later began travelling the country on the U.S. Auto Club sprint car circuit.

"His 'rookie' year was hard on us as a family," said Mrs. Spalding.

"It was nothing to see Wib running four abreast through the corners with such drivers as Don Branson, Bob Harkley, Roger McCluskey and others, but victory never came until about mid-season."

Touring the national circuit put a strain on the family purse-strings, forcing Spalding to compete at non-sanctioned tracks in hopes of winning money to put food on the table.

Using the name Lee Carson (middle names of his two sons), Spalding returned to St. Charles Speedway where he already held several track records.

"Wib won $200 there one night, but USAC learned of it and fined him $50 for competing in a non-national program," said Mrs. Spalding.

At Salem, Ind., in 1966, Spalding won his first USAC sprint race feature, defeating Charlie Masters, Don Thomas, Bruce Walkup and Bob Pratt and others.

Following a lean year in 1967 on the national circuit, Spalding established a new four-lap record in his sprint car on the five-eighths mile oval of Oswego Speedway in New York.

In 1968, a record that stands today — a time of 1:20.28 with an average speed of more than 112 miles-per-hour.

At the conclusion of that season, Spalding finished seventh in the USAC point standings. Also in the top 10 drivers were Larry Dickson, Gary Bettenhausen, Greg Weld, Carl Williams, Rollie Beale, Bruce Walkup and others.

That same year, Spalding spent the entire month of May at Indianapolis with a rear-engine race car that had been driven the year before by the late Jimmy Clark with hopes of entering the Indy "500" race.

Fortune failed to shine on the Pontoon Beach driver and he returned home in disgust due to insufficient financial backing. He was honored that year by the St. Louis Elks Club as the

Soccer camp open

With less than a month to go, entries are still being accepted for Burt Ranch Soccer Camp, designed for boys aged 8-16. This summer's camp will be held in two one-week sessions July 10-16 and July 17-23.

Located near DeSoto, Mo., about 35 miles south of St. Louis, the 214-acre camp includes two full-size playing fields, several smaller drill areas, a lake, a stream, wooded areas and a full-size Olympic swimming pool.

Boys stay at the camp fulltime in modern dormitories and eat in a ranch-style dining hall.

Now in its fifth year of operation, the camp is staffed by an experienced group of instructors, headed by co-directors Pat McBride and Bob Brunette.

McBride is a 10-year veteran of the St. Louis Soccer Stars of the North American Soccer League. Last fall he coached Meramec Community College to the national junior college championship.

Brunette, the athletic director of the Affton School District in suburban St. Louis, has coached the Busch Gold Junior Amateur Soccer Team to a 121-1-6 record over the last four years.

Also on the staff are Kevin Kell, head coach at Blackburn College in Carlinville, Ill., and Rick Benben, assistant coach at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Rounding out the staff are collegiate players from SIU-Edwardsville; St. Louis University, Quincy College, and Meramec College who will act as camp counselors.

Tuition for the camp is $115 per session. Cost includes room, meals, insurance, and a tee-shirt. Additional information may be obtained from 731 Dameron, St. Louis, Mo. 63123, or call 1-314-631-7114.

area's top auto racing driver. Discarding the national circuit in favor of the local racing scene, Spalding returned to his winning ways on area tracks, claiming the 1970 track championship at Jefferson City, Mo., and the track title at Tri-City.

The 1972 point title here came in late model stock car competition, though he also competed in super-sprint programs.

"Wib went undefeated three consecutive weeks in both divisions here, and won eight straight late model feature races before Corbin beat him."

Spalding concluded the season with 11 main event wins under his belt, and in 1973 repeated as Tri-City's track titlist in addition to taking top season honors on the asphalt surface of Lake Hill Speedway in Missouri.

The 1973 title qualified Spalding to enter the annual "race of champions" at Springfield where he took runnerup honors to Ohio's Dutch Hartman, the USAC stock car national titleholder.

The following year, Spalding settled for second place in the final standings at Tri-City behind titlist Len Gittemeier.

Two years passed before the red-haired and stocky-built driver again became "leader of the pack" — 1977.

But, returning to the task at hand Saturday, he perhaps accepts the fact that the other drivers in the field are equally determined to win.

Maxville, Hrabosky, Summers, Hart all enter tournament

Sunset Hills Country Club will be the site on July 18 of a first annual Illinois Cystic Fibrosis Celebrity Golf Tournament in which several celebrities will participate, including former Granite Cityan Del Maxwell.

Willard V. "Butch" Portell, tournament co-chairman, announces that entries from the public are being sought to compete along with an expected 36 celebrities.

Portell notes play will be limited to 36 forecours with each playing with a well-known sports or media personality, and that all proceeds will be donated to the Cystic Fibrosis Fund.

Celebrity entries received thus far include Al Hrabosky, Champ Summers, Larry Stallings, Conrad Dobler, Jim Hart, Jack Buck, Ron Jacober, Mike Shannon and Jay Randolph.

The entry fee is $100 per player. Anyone interested in entering the event are being invited to contact the Sunset Hills Country Club, St. Louis Office, Cystic Fibrosis, or Portell at the Madison County Courthouse.

Area horsemen compete in Trailriders show

According to officers of the Trailriders Saddle Club of Granite City, a fine turnout of horsemen competed during the weekend in the club's first "Point Show" of the 1977 spring-summer riding season.

A "Jackpot Show" is scheduled as the next event on Saturday, July 23, at the Trailriders arena, located on Chouteau Slough Road at Rock Road, near the Chain of Rocks Canal levee.

Plans also are being finalized for a big "Money Show" on Saturday, July 30, at the same location.

Guaranteed purses of $96 each will be offered in all classes of competition, excluding the haltering classes, where a $50 guaranteed purse is set in each of the three divisions.

In connection with the July 30 program, other special activities are being arranged for spectators and riders, it was announced.

First place winners in the weekend "Point Show" included a double winner, Jeana Weldon riding Fort Cody to take top points in the junior polo bending and junior barrel racing events.

Other blue ribbon winners, the event and mount, were: Lorraine Leroy, senior polo bending, riding Hambli; Lynn Williams, pony pleasure, Nugget; Kelly Peterson, pony barrel racing, riding Hambli; Heiney, pony polo, Champion; Shellie Hartzel, junior barrel racing, Katie Dee; Clinton Smith, gaited cutting pleasure, Pride; Pattie Bryar, ladies western pleasure, Tinker Belle; Mark Dean Neuner Jr., plug race, Mesa Shade; Bob Garland, fox trotting, Boy Billy Velvet; Sara McCadden, junior western pleasure, Pine Pistol; Maurice File, senior barrel race, Randy; Terry Eldridge, western pleasure, Pine Pistol; Lila Schneidewind, ladies gaited cutting pleasure, Tennessee Buck; Barb Carter, open western pleasure, Ima Jet; and Billy Leroy Jr., flag race, Leo's 4-Step.

Shemwell joins Bearcats

Jim Shemwell of Granite City is among the high school student-athletes from Illinois who have indicated their intentions to enroll in the Missouri State University and participate in the Bearcat football program which has produced a 36-14 record the past five years.

Bearcat Head Coach, Jim Redd, whose team posted an 8-2 record last fall, has announced the additions of Charleston's Paul Wilson and Shemwell.

Wilson, a 6-1, 210-pound nose guard and offensive guard, was a first team all-conference selection at nose guard both his junior and senior years, and earned all-area honors his senior season for Coach Chuck Budd's Charleston High School Trojans.

Captain and winner of his high school's outstanding defensive player award, Wilson has been selected as a member of the east squad in the Illinois High School all-star football tournament to be played at Illinois State. The game is sponsored by the Illinois Coaches Association and the Illinois State.

Shemwell is a 6-1, 220-pound defensive and end-offensive tackle who played for Coach Tom Wilson at Granite City High School North.

His team's most valuable lineman, Shemwell is described by Redd as a strong, agile football player who hasn't reached his peak yet, and who should develop into an outstanding football player.

In addition to his football abilities, Shemwell posted a 22-10-1 record and was district champ in wrestling last winter, and in his first year of track competition this spring he topped the shot put 52 feet, 6 inches.

At NWMSU, Shemwell will be joining a former high school teammate Larry Schleicher, who lettered as wide receiver for the Bearcats last season as a freshman.

Ranking in the upper quarter of his high school class, Shemwell plans to major in mathematics and physical education.

Northwest Missouri State University is a member of the seven-team NCAA Division II affiliated Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The Bearcats shared a conference title in 1972, won an outright crown in 1974, and finished a half game out of first place last fall.

Poovey placed second behind Poovey, David Rush sneaked into third position at the finish, Ahn was fourth, Gary Reust fifth, Ken McDonald sixth and Jones seventh.

Ken Hapke and Brian Coe also were heat winners.

A novice division of the racing program saw Mitchell's Rod Hartzel join Charlie Roberts and Louis Ligon as heat race winners.

Mark Holmes of Troy took top honors in that division's main event and earlier won a semimain race as did Ligon.

Kiwanians competing plans for annual hydroplane races

Many of the best of hydroplane drivers come from the Midwest and the Granite City Kiwanis Club will bring them to Horseshoe Lake Saturday and Sunday, July 23 and 24.

Kiwanis Club boat races will feature the top drivers of the hydro scene including a father from Indiana who competes with his three sons and a gifted one-handed driver," a spokesman said today.

These drivers compete at speeds near 100 miles-per-hour in a boat that usually weighs less than the driver and is shorter than 13 feet.

The drivers kneel and hold the throttle with the left hand and the steering wheel with the right hand, the spokesman said. The edge of danger is ever present, even in practice, as the drivers push their boats to speeds once thought impossible for such small boats, he explained.

The racing events begin at 9 a.m. on July 23 and finish at the same time on July 24. Those attending are advised to be early and "catch all the excitement" at Horseshoe Lake, he added.

More information may be obtained from any member of the Granite City Kiwanis Club, or by calling Allen Jessee, club president, at 876-1212.

The Kiwanis team finished with a 12-14 record, 6-5 in conference play, and finished third in the Midwest Conference championship playoffs.

Coach Russell "Bucky" Swice coached 1977 "the most successful season we've had as a team. We had a good, hustling, spirited club," he said.

Swice said the highlights of the season were the team's doubleheader sweep over Bradley the first league game, an NCAA Division III team, swept an NCAA Division I squad, and its first-ever spring vacation trip to Texas and Oklahoma.

Founded in 1937, Knox is one of the oldest private, coeducational liberal arts colleges in the Midwest. Its "Old Man" administration and classroom building is a national historic landmark and the only remaining site of an 1858 Lincoln-Douglas debate. Knox is a member of the Associated Colleges of the Midwest and the Midwest Athletic Conference.

Extra inning victory for Champion's squad

Tri-City Post 113's Legionnaires are decked with Highland Post 49 in District 22 American Legion Baseball League standings, each with a 5-1 record, after Conrad Champion's charges won an extra inning Tuesday evening to nip host Cahokia 3-2.

A scheduled league contest here with Edwardsville yesterday was postponed due to wet diamonds, and has been rescheduled for July 2 at 1 p.m. The local ballclub will play at Collinsville tonight in an eight o'clock league contest, and then host St. Louis' St. Catherine at 6 p.m. on the GCHS South diamond on Fehling Road.

Park softball tourney to open Saturday

Sixteen participating teams of the Granite City Park District's softball program are set to do battle, starting Saturday, on the Worthen Park and West Granite City Park diamonds for top honors in the annual Illinois Amateur Softball Association-sanctioned District Class A slow-pitch tournament. The top four teams will advance into a state tournament in Decatur to be played Aug. 4-14. A regional men's tourney is to be held at Rockford Aug. 26-28, and national competition is to be played in Richmond, Va., Sept. 2-5.

The double-elimination two-day tournament here has four opening-round games scheduled to be played at Worthen Park, and four at the West Granite City Park.

Worthen Park games are — Granite City Athletic Club vs. Hot Shots, 6 a.m.; Midtown Pharmacy vs. VFW 1300 Post, 10 a.m.; Granite Sports Club vs. Madison Amvets, 11 a.m.; and Victory Tavern vs. Crystal-Clear Ice at noon.

West Granite City Park games are — Venice-Madison Legion Post 307 vs. Zantigo, 9 a.m.; Midtown vs. Royce Realty, 10 a.m.; Mary's vs. Sammy's Tavern, 11 a.m.; and Quad-City Merchants vs. Razor's Edge Barber Shop at noon.

First-round game winners advance into action at 1, 2, 3 and 4 p.m., and quarter-final games at Worthen Park are set for Sunday at 9 and 10 a.m. with the latter two victors clashing in a semifinal game at 11 a.m. Sunday.

A tournament championship game is to be played at 8 p.m. Sunday at Worthen Park between an undefeated team and a team which worked its way back into contention after suffering a first loss.

Teams experiencing an initial loss are to compete Saturday at West Granite City Park at 1, 2, 3 and 4 p.m.

Other loser bracket contests are on Sunday at 1, 2, 3 and 4 p.m. at West Granite City Park, and at 6 and 7 p.m. at Worthen Park.

An early season rainout of a game between Post 113 and Bethalto will be played on the road Saturday at 11 a.m., reports Champion.

Tri-City and St. Louis Europa will clash in a non-league twill here on Sunday with the first contest starting at 1 p.m. Winning hurler Eldon Warfield fanned five Cahokia batters Tuesday, while giving up only one earned run and three hits.

Post 113 went ahead 1-0 in the opening frame when Tom Hennrich walked, stole second, advanced on a flyball, and scored on a groundout by Keith Champion.

Cahokia tied the game with a run in the fourth inning before Tri-City again jumped out in front with a tally in the fifth. Warfield drew a walk in the fifth, Joe Parente reached on an infield error and Hennrich again walked. With one out, Randy Smith reached base on a throwout at second, also allowing Warfield to score.

The score was tied 2-2 in the sixth as Cahokia put a run across.

The host ballclub's second error of the game came in the ninth inning, resulting in the winning run. John Lakin opened with a single and Warfield sacrificed pinch-runner Jim Goodyear to second when then advanced on a groundout by Parente. Goodyear scored when the third baseman threw the ball over the head of the first baseman's head in an attempt to put Hennrich out.

Offer cage training

Madison area boys, aged 8 to 16, are being sought to learn the fundamentals of basketball during a summer-long introduction program to the sport at the Madison Recreation Center, Seventh Street and Lee Avenue, Madison.

Recreation Director Sam Dymas explained the program will be instructed by Clayton Harris, a member of the 1976-77 Madison High School Trojan Class A state championship team.

Dymas notes that interested boys may register for the program at the recreation center from 9 a.m. to noon tomorrow, and again at those times on Monday.

Defense important in Post 435's 2-1 tally

It helps to have a former member of an opposing team on your side, especially when a ballclub has gone winless in 15 consecutive outings.

Rob Harris of Edwardsville not only singled in the winning run Tuesday on the road for Glen Carbon American Legion Post 435, but also served as an advisor, advising winning pitcher Jeff Hamilton as to strengths and weaknesses of each Edwardsville player.

Glen Carbon's 2-1 win over the hosts was also the result of good defensive play by Bob Batey, Richard Schmidt and Mike Hubbard, who between them turned four double plays.

Hamilton held Edwardsville to one hit in each of the third and fourth frames, and gave up a walk and an infield out in the fourth for the host's only tally.

SIUE runners set record

Sam Nesbit, a former GCHS South track standout, led six other members of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville relay team to a new 24-hour record last weekend at St. Louis' Parkway North High School, topping four other college squads in the process.

Other than Nesbit, members of the team were Larry Law of Bethalto, Dave Dokowski of Belleville, Paul Kish of O'Fallon, Greg Maag of Edwardsville, and Alan Murray of New Jersey and Mark Profanek of Centralia.

They set a new mark of 262 miles and 449 yards, running continuously from 5 p.m. Friday to 5 p.m. Saturday.

The previous record of more than 250 miles was set last year by a collegiate squad from the East Coast.

Post 435 collected two hits and two runs in the first inning when Terry Page singled, Mike Simpson walked and Schmidt reached safely when an infielder decided to throw Page out at third.

A runner crossed homeplate and Jodi Faloni reached safely when the first baseman dropped the ball before Harris singled in what was to be the overcoming tally.

"Harris this season," said Art Jovi, "was to play for Edwardsville but was cut from the roster just before the season got underway."

Jovi's Legionnaires are at East St. Louis this evening for a six o'clock ballgame, and then travel to Highland on Saturday for an 8:30 p.m. clash. On Monday, Post 435 will host the Southwest Kiwanis Club team on diamond two at Wilson Park at 6:15 p.m.

Seek teams in Venice

The Venice Independent Little League is seeking second-year juvenile division teams to participate in a tournament to be played at Venice's Lee Park July 1 to 4. John H. Williams, league spokesman, explained a $25 team registration fee is required, and that Tuesday, June 28 has been set as the deadline for team managers or coaches to enter teams by contacting him at 877-4117.

TREATED AT HOSPITAL

Miss Ida Ford, 27, of 107 Logan Ave., went to St. Elizabeth Hospital last week after being injured when her car was hit from behind. She suffered pain to her right ankle. X-rays were taken and she was treated and released.

Record attempt fails

Granite Cityan Richard "Rick" Rose's attempt Saturday to break the existing world non-stop running record of 131 1/4 miles yielded to hot weather conditions after five and one-half miles were completed, according to Will Bagby of the St. Louis Track Club who was officiating the attempt.

McKinley bridge repairs well ahead of schedule

The G. H. Sternberg Construction Co., doing repair work on the McKinley Toll Bridge, is about two to three weeks ahead of schedule, according to Thomas Fields, bridge manager.

Fields, reporting to the Venice City Council at its Tuesday night meeting, said that the critical stage of the repair has been passed.

Fields told the council that Joe Brooks, resident engineer, explained that heavy rains could have delayed the placing of the embankment, a major factor in the reconstruction, but that this danger had passed.

The bridge manager reported that they have started placing rock and some pouring of cement has begun.

Traffic on the bridge has dropped with the reopening of the Poplar Street bridge, Fields said. "I believe we are keeping a portion of the traffic that started using our bridge with the traffic tie up," he said. "We seem to be having our traffic flow fairly smoothly with not much backup. When our work is finished in a couple of months things will be even better."

Fields also reported that lighting on the west lanes of the bridge is now working.

Alderman Tyrone Echols was appointed by Mayor William Ebersoldt to represent the city of Venice on the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission.

The council also approved a building permit for Madison W. Garret in the amount of $3,200 to add a 15 by 30-foot addition to his building at 1001 Douglas St., Venice.

The arrest report for May showed a total of 15 adult and seven juvenile arrests with $885 collected in fines.

Mayor Ebersoldt said, "There are two things that I would like the council to consider. First, we need to decide what sidewalks need to be repaired first, and also to check the wards for any houses or old buildings that need to be torn down, so we can start the condemnations."

Rev. and Mrs. Beasley honored

The congregation of Dewey Avenue United Methodist Church decorated the church with arrangements of summer flowers, and balloons and planned a salad dinner for the minister and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Beasley, who have been re-assigned to serve Dewey Avenue Church, for another year.

Hosts for the evening social event were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hillman and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Donley.

Mrs. Viola Brooks was in charge of the "Welcome Back" program and poems appropriate to the event were read by Mrs. Cheryl Hutchinson, followed by a sing-along.

A special gift was presented to the Rev. and Mrs. Beasley, followed by the minister addressing the group. He said, "I will endeavor to become a better pastor and leader during the ensuing year. With a minister and congregation totally dedicated to God's work, we can serve in a special way in our city."

GC ok's 25-cent cab fare boost

The Granite City Council has given its tentative approval to a 25-cent increase in the basic taxicab fare for Dave's Taxi Service and Checker Cab, the only taxicab services operating from Granite City.

At Tuesday night's City Council meeting, the aldermen voted to approve three requests made by Mrs. Ruth Ann McEntyre of Checker Cab and Carolyn Hornbeck of Dave's Taxi.

The major change is the 25-cent increase in the standard 90 cent fare which will result in all trips being 25 cents higher. The aldermen stipulated that the increase may not be added each time the taxicab and passenger pass from one zone into another.

Also approved was a 10-cent increase in the fare for a second passenger in the taxicab, up from 25 cents to 35 cents. The third change approved was the reduction of the hours in which senior citizens may get reduced fares from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily.

The taxicab company of ficials contended rising costs, including high-risk insurance, have made it necessary for taxi rates to increase in order to continue operations.

Alarms

would only increase the cost of owning a burglar alarm and suggested a fee of $1 be inserted. Even though some of the aldermen previously indicated they favored a $10 permit fee, Farmley's motion for a $1 fee was passed unanimously.

Some aldermen confused the permit fee with the monthly charge residents would pay for use of the burglar alarms, thinking Farmley's $1 fee would result in residents paying only $1 per month for service, rather than the $5 per month the alarm company, Controlled Security Systems, proposed to charge.

Amid the confusion, a motion was made to refer the ordinance back to the ordinance committee for study and revisions.

Seven aldermen voted to refer the issue to committee while six voted against the motion. Mayor Paul Schuler was requested to cast the deciding vote and he voted no.

The 7-7 deadlock kept the ordinance and amendments on the floor. A vote to pass the ordinance as amended then was introduced, but was halted by a motion to defer it.

The motion to defer was passed unanimously and the ordinance may be considered at a future time.

Douglas later expressed disgust the ordinance was not sent to the Ordinance Committee, of which he is a member, but noted the Ordinance Committee has not met since the members were appointed several months ago. He said the chairman, Roy Poulos, never has called for a meeting.

The contract with Controlled Systems Inc. then was introduced and Charles May, company representative, explained his company is standing behind the agreement, even though, "the new costs of phone lines for burglar alarms have thrown a real kink in this because the costs have gotten out of hand."

Illinois Bell recently raised the rate for its special telephone lines, which are required from each building served by a burglar alarm, from the rate for regular telephone lines to a flat $10.50 per month, including taxes. The increase was as high as 350 per cent in a few cases.

The phone company, despite objections to a $60 phone line installation fee, also raised the fee to $72, including taxes.

Persons renting burglar alarms from Controlled Security Systems also must pay that company $5 per month rental on the units. Of that $5, the company will rebate $2 to the city for each unit in excess of 200 units. The city also will receive a $1,000 bonus from the company if more than 200 alarm units are connected within six months of the first billing date, under the contract.

Controlled Security Systems will provide and install the system at no cost to the city, the contract stipulates.

The aldermen approved the contract unanimously. An agreement between the telephone company and the city about easements on city property then was discussed and approved, but Alderman Everett "Cherry" Morten said he felt such "favours" should be used by the council as "leverage" to get the phone company to reduce the monthly rate for phone lines used by alarm systems.

The action taken limited the former franchise agreement on easements to a period of 25 years and gave the city the right to demand the removal of utility poles when necessary.

Morten then made a motion that the council go on record as opposing the high monthly charge for burglar alarm phone lines and his motion was passed unanimously.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER. Mrs. Elna Hoover, of Granite City, chairman of the executive board of the Southwest Illinois Area Agency on Aging (SWIAAOA), addresses a gathering of more than 200 senior citizens at the Granite City High School North cafeteria Wednesday. The Granite City Senior Citizen Council and SWIAAOA co-sponsored the informational meeting to reach seniors who may not know of the programs available to them in this area. (Press-Record Photo)

Bicycle thefts high, take added measures

More bicycles are stolen in the month of June than at any other time of the year, local police authorities report.

Although locking or chaining a bicycle when not in use sometimes fails to prevent a determined thief from breaking the lock, cutting the chain and taking a machine, such precautionary measures deter a thief from walking away unnotified with a bicycle, in many instances.

Bicycles should be registered with local police departments and assigned an identification number, which is kept on file. In a period of a few hours on Tuesday, the following bicycle theft reports were among those received at Granite City police headquarters:

A 20-inch boy's bicycle was stolen from the home of Harold Scarborough, 2515 Lynch Ave., reported at 3:40 p.m. Tuesday, that his 10-speed bicycle valued at $80 was stolen from the Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl parking lot.

A white and red three-speed bicycle worth $60 was stolen at 5:15 p.m. Tuesday, reported by the owner, Gerald DeGarde, 2513 E. 23rd St.

Robert Hazelwood, 2519 E. 23rd St., reported at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, that his black and red bicycle was stolen from the front of a store at East 24th and Kate Streets.

A 20-inch boy's bicycle was stolen from the home of Harold Scarborough, 2515 Lynch Ave., he reported at 8 a.m. Tuesday.

Taken from the front yard at the home of Mrs. Paula Bernold, 2704 Lincoln Ave., reported at 11:45 a.m. Tuesday, a girl's bicycle with training wheels, worth $30, and a red and blue "hot wheels" cycle valued at $20.

Tina Koehler, 2801 Dale Ave., reported at 11:50 a.m. Tuesday, a 10-speed boy's bicycle, blue in color, was taken from the rear yard of the dwelling.

A 10-speed bicycle chained outside Central Hardware Store in Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center, owned by Tom Ferrill, 2712 Madison Ave., was reported stolen at 3:15 p.m.

The machine was recovered by an officer in the 1900 block of Briarhaven Drive at 7:10 p.m. the same day. A boy said he had found the bicycle in the weeds at the rear of the K-Mart store.

Three bicycles reported stolen at 8 a.m. Tuesday, had been recovered by officers about 4:15 a.m. the same day on Lynch Avenue.

Two bicycles were returned to Mary Goode, 2572 Lynch Ave., and one machine was returned to Marian Hill, 2513 Pontoon Road. Police are continuing to investigate the incident.

Tax issue

years ago, local tax agencies were forced to sell anticipation warrants to finance current obligations, and pay interest on those warrants, although money was on deposit but not distributed, local officials noted.

Local tax collections are financed by the townships. The 1970 Illinois Constitution eliminated the system of paying townships for tax collections through a 2 per cent fee system. The constitution left responsibility of tax collections to the county treasurer.

The town collectors contended, however, that the constitution did not eliminate the right of townships to collect taxes.

This legal question is expected to be determined as a result of today's hearing.

STOLEN FROM LOT
A two-door 1977 Caprice auto was stolen Tuesday evening from the Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl parking lot. It was reported by the owner, Randy Hollis, 3800 Buxton Ave. Assorted power and mechanics tools were in the trunk of the vehicle, he advised.

Arabs now wage 'peace offensive' against Israel

This month marks the tenth anniversary of the Six-Day War, when Israel alone in the face of Egypt's war mobilization, the ominous threats of Arab armies and destruction from all Arab capitals, a vanishing UN presence in the Sinai, and the closing of the Straits of Tiran.

Unfortunately, not much has changed since then with regard to basic Arab attitudes toward Israel. The Arab states still refuse to negotiate directly with Israel, and genuine peace is no closer to reality than a decade ago.

The Arab states, enriched by petrodollars and emboldened by the oil weapon, are also far better armed.

Having learned the counter-productivity of public threats they now wage a sophisticated "peace offensive" designed to induce the Western nations into pressuring Israel to make unilateral concessions.

Well-meaning commentators and diplomats want to believe that the Arab leaders are models of "moderation" and desire peace, if only they were to withdraw to the pre-1967 lines and accept PLO mini-state on the West Bank and the Gaza Strip.

The United States, which affirms its friendship and a special relationship with Israel, offers substantial economic and military aid, but its disavowals of any intention to impose a settlement carry increasingly less credibility.

For many years, an important element in Israel's foreign policy has been its insistence on direct, face-to-face negotiations with the Arabs. In 1971, this has been a question of substance, not merely procedure, because refusal to negotiate implies a denial of Israel's national existence.

In an effort to ease Arab hostility and intransigence, Israel has agreed to include outside mediators in peace discussions. In 1971, Israel expressed its readiness to participate in a U.S.-sponsored, step-by-step process. But negotiations collapsed before the 1973 Yom Kippur War because the Arabs refused to budge from their inflexible positions.

After the war, as a result of former Secretary of State Kissinger's lengthy shuffles, Israel gave up strategic assets in the Sinai in the hope that these concessions would be reciprocated in a meaningful way. They have not.

As a result, Israel has gnawing doubts about the future, but little doubt about ultimate Arab intentions.

Many Israelis fear that they will be called upon to take further serious risks without any demonstrated abatement in Arab hostility, which is expressed in many ways: the economic boycott; the crude vilification in the UN and its agencies; the massive arms buildup; the continuing hate spewed forth in the Arab media; and the proposal to establish a PLO-led state on the West Bank and Gaza.

The recent elections in Israel demonstrated that most Israelis question whether Israel should abandon strategic territory for paper guarantees which have proved so ephemeral in the past. Some American commentators seem to believe that the major obstacle to peace is the question of territory and that an Israeli claim for Samaria and Judea could obstruct a settlement. But that assessment ignores the fact that between 1949 and 1967 the Arab states controlled these areas yet refused to accept Israel. It also ignores repeated Israeli assertions up to today that Israel is prepared to negotiate peace — including territorial withdrawals — with no price conditions.

Historically, every President has started his first term in office with a desire to produce a formula to end the Arab-Israeli conflict.

President Carter is no exception and would very much like to succeed. But every previous initiative has failed because of the refusal of the Arab leaders to give tangible evidence of their desire for a genuine peace with Israel. Today, there is still scant evidence that the Arabs are, in fact, really ready to live in peace with a viable Jewish state in their midst.

They continue to seek American pressure on Israel for concessions — rather than to offer meaningful concessions themselves. And they continue to transpose their role as aggressor into that of victim.

Ten years after the euphoria of Israel's brilliant victory in the Six-Day War, the Middle East is no closer to real peace. As long as the United States gives the Arab states reason to hope that U.S. support for Israel can be eroded, peace will remain as elusive as ever. The Administration should realize that many Americans are concerned that it is sending the wrong signals. By seeking to reassure the Arab states of its credentials as an honest broker, it is unduly alarming Israel, which already regards the United States as a firm and reliable friend.

Cadet Draganich among graduates

Cadet Frank Draganich of Granite City was among underclassmen receiving honors at the 88th Commencement at Missouri Military Academy at Mexico, Mo.

Col. Charles Stribling III, Academy president and Lt. Gov. William C. Phelps of Missouri presented diplomas to graduating cadets to climax three days of Commencement activities. Phelps also delivered the principal address to over 1,600 cadets and campus visitors.

Immediately preceding graduation exercises, Lt. Gov. Phelps reviewed the corps of cadets at the Senior Review. Command of the corps of cadets was passed from Cadet Major Keith Weaver to Cadet Sergeant Major Dean Davison of Mercer, Mo., battalion commander-designate for 1977-78.

Cadet Draganich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Draganich, 2713 Grand Ave., received a non-commissioned officers warrant.

Rites for former GC resident

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, June 18, at a funeral home in Dover, Tenn., for Mrs. Ethel Weston, 74, of Tennessee Ridge, Tenn., a former 25-year resident of Granite City.

She died June 15 at the Parklawn Manor Convalescent Home in Hopkinsville, Ky.

While residing here, Mrs. Weston was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Survivors include her husband, Wilbur Weston; two stepsons, Robert Weston of Glen Carbon, and William Weston of St. Louis; one brother, Roy Glisson of Livingston, Ill., and nieces and nephews.

Burial was in Concord Cemetery, Kenton, Tenn.

GI schooling most used benefit since WW II

During the 33-year life span of the biggest free schooling program in the nation's history, nearly 37 million Americans have been educated under one of the three GI Bills passed since World War II, the Veterans Administration announced.

The program trained nearly eight million World War II veterans, more than two million Korean conflict vets and nearly seven million post-Korean conflict servicemen and women.

Free to the students, the three GI Bills cost the taxpayers $40.7 billion and are regarded as one of the most successful and widely used of all veterans' benefits.

VA's latest figures on GI Bill usage cover the period through November, 1976, a month before the traditional program was replaced with one requiring financial participation by the serviceman or woman.

The November enrollment figures showed large drops from those of a year previous due to the fact that the semi-annual VA compilation was the first since GI bill eligibility ran out for 3.6 million post-Korean and early Vietnam Era veterans. The GI Bill carries a 10-year "use-it-or-lose-it" limit.

Even with the smaller enrollment figures, VA said 1.2 million veterans and active duty service personnel were taking GI Bill trainings in November.

Graduate at U. of I.

Diplomas for 5,586 May graduates of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign will be mailed to recipients in mid-August.

The total includes 4,369 undergraduate and 1,217 advanced degrees.

Although Commencement exercises were held May 15, preparation of diplomas was begun only after all grades were reported and verified.

Granite City graduates area: David W. Baumberger, Cheryl A. Gertch, Glenn Hallace, Gregory J. Hutchings, Carol Jackson, William L. Lovachoff, Gary L. Loy, Erie Ann Mills, Ralph F. Reeder, Lou A. Schwager, Mark S. Senak and Gail A. Waldo.

Terrence A. Young of Madison also received a diploma.

Army calls bids to move equipment

The U.S. Army St. Louis Area Support Center (SLASC) at Granite City is advertising for bids to move office furniture, supplies and equipment from the Federal Mart Building to the Federal Center over a period of approximately three months.

This move is precipitated by the reorganization of the U.S. Army Aviation Command and the U.S. Army Troop Support Command.

According to a SLASC procurement Branch spokesman, the proposed move will commence July 22 and end Sept. 2. Provisions in the contract stipulate the move from the Mart Building, 12th and Spruce Streets to the Center, 4500 Goodfellow Boulevard, will be made after duty hours Fridays and on Saturdays and Sundays.

Bidding information is available from the Procurement Branch, Area Support Division, U.S. Army St. Louis Area Support Center, Granite City.

Police seek man in disturbance

A Granite City woman reported to police at 8:55 a.m. Tuesday that her estranged husband broke a window in her mother's house and attempted to pull her 15-month-old daughter through the opening, but was prevented from doing so by the woman's brother who drew the child back inside the dwelling.

The man, who is still being sought by officers, allegedly attempted to run over the brother, 20, with his car when the latter went outside to ask him to leave.

A police officer was at the house when the man telephoned, and he was advised to report to police headquarters. The man replied that he had a gun and threatened to kill himself.

Workshop for nurses

The Continuing Education Program of the School of Nursing at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will offer a one-day workshop on mental illness and aging, June 29 from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. in the Centennial Room of the University Center.

According to Betty Boyd Walker, director of the program, the workshop is designed to offer professionals and paraprofessionals working with the aging in hospitals, agencies and long-term care facilities the opportunity to gain an awareness of mental illness in later life.

Students will examine the normal physical, social and psychological changes that occur with age, discuss organic brain syndromes, affective disorders and paranoid reactions in the aging, and explore ways of dealing with the mentally ill elderly.

Instructors for the workshop include: Doris Bell, assistant professor of nursing at SIUE; Lynn Sokol, consultant in gerontology from St. Louis; Rosalyn Sykes, nursing instructor at SIUE; and Anthony Traxler, associate professor of psychology at the University. Group discussion leaders, all from SIUE, will include: Robert B. Hawkins, professor of speech communication; Arthur C. Zahalsky, professor of biological sciences; Mary J. Greene, graduate nursing student; and Mary L. Newsome and Carol A. Sterling, graduate

Top performers at State Fair

Illinois State Fair Manager, Nick Stone, has announced the 1977 lineup of Grandstand performers and a new policy for two paid shows nightly.

The performers for this year's Fair include: Glen Campbell, Johnny Cash, Captain and Tennille, K.C. and the Sunshine Band, The Bay City Rollers, England Dan and John Ford Coley, Charley Pride, and Marilyn McCoo and Billy Davis Jr.

Stone said last year's experiment with two paid shows for the Grandstand's performance worked so well that "we decided with the strength of our lineup this year to do two every night."

Stone said the list of outstanding entertainers for every night makes the Grandstand show the strongest in Illinois State Fair history.

The opening Grandstand show will be Friday, Aug. 12, with Marilyn McCoo and Billy Davis Jr., former lead singers with the Fifth Dimension.

Saturday, Aug. 13, traditionally a country show, will feature singer Charley Pride, who also starred this year in the TV series "Nashville 99."

On Youth Day, Monday, Aug. 15, the rock group, the Bay City Rollers will hold forth, followed on Aug. 16 by England Dan and John Ford Coley. The K.C. and the Sunshine Band will perform on Aug. 17.

Captain and Tennille, the couple who took the record industry by storm in 1975 and had their own TV show this season, will bring their brand of music and humor on Thursday, Aug. 18.

Superstar Johnny Cash, one of the greatest performers of all time, appears on Friday, Aug. 19. Glen Campbell, who in recent weeks has been number one on both country and contemporary charts with "Southern Nights," will bring his singing style to the Fair Saturday, Aug. 20.

Of the eight headliners at the Grandstand this year, four currently have hits in the Top 40: Glen Campbell, K.C. and the Sunshine Band, Marilyn McCoo and Billy Davis Jr., and Captain and Tennille.

Stone indicated the final night of the Fair, Sunday, Aug. 21, will be a special free grandstand show featuring the U.S. Naval Academy Band and a giant fireworks display.

This year's Fair runs August 11 through 21. Mail orders for Grandstand tickets are now being received. Prices are $6, $5 and $3.

GI Bill payments in June lowest total in 33 years

Signaling the start of changed payment procedures for GI Bill students, Veterans Administration computers authorized only 26,000 education checks for payment on June 1—the lowest total in the 33 year history of the GI Bill programs.

June 1 was the effective date of a change in law that decreases GI Bill payments from now on will be paid after each month of training has been completed instead of at the start of each training period.

Max Cleland, VA administrator, said the agency computers will resume the normal processing of between 900,000 and 1.2 million GI Bill accounts on July 1. He pointed out that since students now in training had already been paid on May 1 for the full month of May, their next checks — for the month of June — will not be received until July 1.

The new law, he explained, is designed to reduce VA overpayments, which occurred when VA paid in advance for training that in many cases was never taken by the veteran.

The 26,000 checks authorized for payment June 1 went primarily to trainees in programs where the prepayment of allowances is not involved. These programs include flight, correspondence, on-the-job and apprenticeship training.

In addition to ending the prepayment of monthly allowances, the new law provides advance payments at the start of a school term — only if a veteran applies for such payments, and then agrees to handle the advances. Formerly VA made these advance payments automatically to all veterans in training.

The VA administrator said VA was doing everything possible to notify veterans now in training and veterans who plan to start training this fall of the changed method of payment so they can plan their finances accordingly.

He said VA plans to make maximum use of its work-study and educational loan programs to assist veterans in making the one-time transition to the new payment procedure.

REINHARDT—Realtor Sells—BETTER LIVING!

Paula 116-12 What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits towards me?

The writer of Psalm asks a pertinent question. He is in fact counting all of the blessings of God in his life. He is so blessed of the Lord he feels that he should pay back in some measure, somehow, for all of God's goodness.

It is evident throughout all of the Bible that it is more than a little beneficial to serve the Lord. David writes: Bless the Lord O my mercies, who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thine diseases. Who could be greater than forgiveness of sins and good health?

David answers his own question. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people. He realized the power of public confession of his faith in God. Would not God be pleased with us if we were to pay our vows in the presence of His people?

Believing in the heart, and confession with the mouth assures us of salvation.

Confess Him Today.

Eagles Auxiliaries state convention

The 29th Annual Convention of the Ladies Auxiliaries of the Fraternal Order of Eagles convened at the Holiday Inn in Decatur, Ill., this month with over 400 delegates from Illinois present. Attending from Granite City Eagles Auxiliary No. 1126 as delegates were Phyllis Seka, newly installed president, Nancy Mullen, vice-president, Helen Frazier, secretary and Angie Buehler, auxiliary "Mother" for the coming year, Florida Batson, Marge Hall, Dolores Sanders, Alma Sedabres, Doloris Klesh, Jackie Watkins and Doris Yost.

Highlights of the convention was the initiation of candidates by the outstanding officers chosen in the Ritual Competition at the 1976 convention, which included Nancy Mullen, who held the president's station. Mrs. Seka took part in the president's march, at which time each auxiliary's incoming and outgoing presidents were escorted to the main table in the banquet hall, where they were greeted by the Grand President, Anna Finken, and the Illinois State President, Marjorie Friddis from Mount Carmel, Ill.

The Granite City Auxiliary ritual team won the second place award in the ritual competition, with Alma Sedabres winning the junior past president outstanding officer's award.

Other members of the team are Nancy Mullen, Helen Frazier, Dolores Sanders and Marge Hall, who is team captain and conductor. The first place award was won by Granite City for its president's scrapbook entry, made by Kathy Reed. Donations to the charities sponsored by the Eagles by the Illinois Auxiliaries totaled over $55,000. A grant of $5,000 was presented to SIU-Carbondale for further research of hypertension. And $11,000 check was presented to the head of the Hearing Impairment Center in Marion, Ill., by the state president.

Installation of state officers for the new year was held, with Mrs. Mullen being installed as state trustee, the new state president for the year is Marcela Sprafks from Cicero, Ill., who is using a theme of the three M's — Members, and Money for Marcel for 1977-78. The charities donated to were the Max Baer Heart Fund, Jimmy Durante Crippled Children's Fund, Eagles Cancer Fund and Golden Eagle Fund.

ENGAGED. Miss Susan Lee Lance and Joseph Steven Szczepanik, whose betrothal is being announced by her parents, Mrs. Mildred Granda and James Lance both of Granite City. A July 23 wedding is planned.

Szczepanik-Lance betrothal

The engagement of Miss Susan Lee Lance and Joseph Steven Szczepanik is being announced by her parents, Mrs. Mildred Granda, 4215 Lee Ave. and James Lance, 5200 Circle Drive.

Miss Lance is a Granite City High School South graduate and is employed as a school crossing guard. The prospective groom is a son of Mrs. Judith Douglas, 1305

Old Trenton Road, Highland and Joseph Szczepanik, 1351 West Pontoon Road.

He graduated from Granite City High School North and is working as a machinist for the Highland Machine and Screw Co., Highland, Ill.

The betrothed couple are completing plans for a July 23 wedding to be solemnized at the First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Grand Avenue.

Bethel 43 plans campout

Bethel 43, Order of Job's Daughters held a School of Instruction, at the first meeting of the new term attended by 43 girls and parents, with Robin McBee, honored queen presiding.

Plans were made to attend Joborama, a statewide four-day campout at Camp Sunrise the early part of July.

Ralph Baker presented the trophy the girls had won for their participation in the Shrine parade. Bethel 43's float depicting the Fourth of July took second place in the holidays division.

Those escorted and introduced were Kim Rapp, Becky Burke, Miriam Ozanich and Charlotte Rapp, all past queens of Bethel 43; Carolyn Ozanich, grand representative to Nevada and librarian of Bethel 43; and Martin Love, grand junior custodian, worthy patron of New Hope Chapter 432, Order of Eastern Star, and associate guardian of the Bethel.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by Dee Baker, Charlotte Root and Pat Gant.

Mr. and Mrs. Bess hosts dinner party

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bess, 428 Lincoln Ave., Venice and son Mark Bess, entertained relatives at a dinner held at the Bess home during the weekend.

Those present were Mrs. Nell Paterson, Chicago, Miss Lori Bird, Wentzka, Ill., Mrs. Patricia Paul and son Christ, of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bess, and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Robertson and son Ryan.

CHECKING PETITIONS to verify that each signer is a registered voter residing in Granite City, volunteer workers for Granite City Street Superintendent Lionel Portell are putting in long days this week to seek a special referendum. The petitions, bearing more than 7,000 signatures, call for a vote on whether the street superintendent should be elected or appointed. Seated from left are Geneva Brooks, Mildred Crider and Dorothy Balis, volunteers. Portell is standing, holding some of the many completed petitions which have to be checked.

Portell petitions ready

Granite City Superintendent of Streets Lionel Portell announced Monday that a sufficient number of signatures have been obtained on petitions to force a referendum on whether his office should be an elected or an appointed one.

Portell said a citizens' committee, the People's Right to Vote Committee, headed by Mrs. Mildred Crider, has been obtaining signatures since May 13 seeking an election on the issue.

The petition drive was in response to action taken by the Granite City Council April 26 voting to change the street superintendent from an elected to an appointed official. The council's action would have changed the office to an appointed post when Portell's current elected term expires in April 1979.

When petitions to force a referendum were distributed, Portell urged his supporters to have the signed petitions returned to Mrs. Crider or himself by a target date of June 20, which was Monday.

"The petitions really poured in during the weekend and we now have more than 7,000 signatures asking for a referendum," the superintendent said.

He noted Mrs. Crider and other workers have set up a card file and are checking every signature to determine if anyone signed more than one petition, and to verify addresses.

"We know we have more than enough 'good' signatures to force the referendum, but we are checking to be absolutely certain before we turn them in to the city elections board," Portell noted.

Portell said his attorney, Leon Scroggins, worded the petition and the proposition for the ballot. Scroggins has estimated that less than 5,000 signatures will be required to force the referendum under a state law which requires a referendum if petitions signed by 25 per cent or more of the registered voters call for one.

Portell said Scroggins decided against using another law allowing 10 per cent of those who actually voted in the last city election to sign petitions for a referendum due to "legal loopholes" which might be used to table those petitions.

Mrs. Crider said the only way the city can now avoid a referendum on the issue is to rescind its action of April 26 and leave the superintendent's post an elected one.

An Oct. 4 special election will be requested if the council's action is not rescinded.

Awarded senior research grant

Drug and other types of chemical research will be aided through research being conducted at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville to predict the shape of molecules.

Thomas D. Bouman, professor of chemistry at SIUE, recently received the 1978 Senior Research Scholar Award at the University to support his study on the structure of molecules.

Prof. Bouman will receive $7,500 in research funds and one-third released time from teaching for research during the academic year. The SIUE Research Scholar Award competition is sponsored jointly by the Office of Research and Projects in the Graduate School and the eight academic schools of the University.

Bouman's research, entitled "Optical Activity Calculations of Organic Molecules," involves predicting the shape of molecules through observing how they react to polarized light.

When a chemist makes a new compound, he wants to know what it is," Bouman explained. "There are a lot of different experiments he uses to help him find out what the molecule is, and this is one of these experiments."

"My work is involved in trying to make a correlation between theoretical predictions and experimental results to help chemists determine what the molecular structure is. This is particularly important in drug research because we have to know the shape of the drug molecule to know why and how it works and why some drugs are more effective than others."

Bouman said "his research begins at the opposite end of an experiment. Instead of creating a compound and then trying to determine its molecular structure, he starts by assuming what a molecular structure looks like. He then predicts the characteristics of its structure."

The SIUE chemist is going to Denmark this summer to continue research at the Oersted Institute of the University of Copenhagen begun in the fall of 1975 when he received a Fulbright-Hays award for his research on molecules. This collaboration is also supported by a North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) research grant that the professor recently received.

Bouman also received a NATO Senior Science Fellowship in 1975 for his research.

In 1974-75, he served as a visiting associate professor at the University of Virginia where he did research on the structure of molecules. He also participated in the International Conference on Computers in Chemical Research and Education, held in Yugoslavia in 1972.

Bouman received his A.B. in chemistry from Washington University and his Ph.D. in physical chemistry and physics from the University of Minnesota.

Before coming to SIUE in 1969, Prof. Bouman was a research associate for three years with Argonne National Laboratory.

SENIOR RESEARCH SCHOLAR. Prof. Thomas D. Bouman of the chemistry faculty at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has been named the 1978 Senior Research Scholar at the University. Prof. Bouman's award grants him $7,500 in research funds and one-third released time from teaching for research during the academic year. His study involves predicting the shape of molecules through observing how they react to polarized light. Drug and other types of chemical research will be aided through the research. Frances Lopata, a graduate student in chemistry from St. Louis, studies some research data with the professor.

Pleads innocent to two charges

Leonard C. Crone, 34, of 2705 Roosevelt Ave., was booked at 3 p.m. Tuesday at Granite City police headquarters on warrants charging him with reckless conduct and aggravated assault.

The warrants were signed by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Crone, of the Roosevelt avenue address. Crone pleaded innocent to the charges before a judge and was released on $500 cash bond.

Nameoki accepts bids on truck, mosquito sprayer

The Nameoki Town Board of Auditors has approved low bids for purchase of a new truck and outdoor spraying unit for the township's mosquito spraying program.

Bo Beuckman Ford of Collinsville was awarded the contract for the new truck on a low bid of $4,249, and Clark Equipment was low bidder on the spraying unit for the spraying unit and was awarded a contract for $2,795.

It also was noted that five of the township's manpower employees had attended a training session and taken tests seeking to achieve state certification as mosquito control officers. Results of those tests have not yet been announced.

Bills approved for payment totaled $3,411 in the town fund, $164 in the road and bridge fund, $8,853 from the special hard road fund, $3,596 from general assistance, $5,998 from federal revenue sharing and $154 from the anti-recessional fiscal fund.

SANITARY SEWER REPLACEMENT on Franklin Avenue, extending on both sides of Pontoon Road, is the biggest sewer repair job undertaken thus far by the Granite City Street Department and its sewer repair division. This excavation, beginning at Lynch Avenue, will extend to Waterman Avenue, cross Pontoon and continue to Amos Avenue and the lift station for replacement of a broken 10-inch sanitary sewer line. The line to be replaced is 13 1/2 feet deep — right on the water table — and will involve approximately 900 feet of new sewer line. This Franklin Avenue sanitary line has been broken since 1973, requiring by-pass pumping to carry sewage around the breaks.

Krekovich active at Boy's State

John A. Krekovich was elected to the office of state's attorney of "Owasey" county at the 41st annual session of the Illinois American Legion Premier Boys State, held at Eastern Illinois University in Charleston.

Krekovich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Krekovich, 3600 Wabash Ave., and will be a senior at Granite City High School South.

Boys State is a compressed, one week course in practical civics. Its purpose is to help to develop in youth constructive attitudes toward the American form of government.

Those attending Boys State are placed at random in mythical cities and counties. They participate in choosing their own city, county and state officials (from alderman to governor) in accordance with regular election procedures.

This program was originated in Illinois by The American Legion in 1924. The plan has been adopted by the national organization of The American Legion and is now in operation in all 50 states.

Odd Fellows Lodge 87 fetes 50-year members

A dinner honoring veteran members of Six Mile Lodge 87, Independent Order of Odd Fellows (IOOF), occurring last week at the IOOF Hall, 3906 Nameoki Road, was attended by more than 35 persons.

The lodge, one of the oldest in the area, accorded recognition and awarded commemorative pins to three members who have belonged to the organization for 50 years.

Those honored for a half-century of service in IOOF Lodge 87 were R. D. Campbell, Louis Wille and Roy Kinder. Frank Mercer, a 30-year member, also was extended congratulations and received a pin.

Earl Wright, Lodge 87 recording secretary, reviewed the principles of the order in a brief talk.

The pins were presented to the honorees by Robert Rouland, lodge deputy and treasurer.

A social evening with refreshments followed dinner and the awards ceremony.

50-YEAR MEMBERS of Six Mile Lodge 87, Independent Order of Odd Fellows (IOOF), R. D. Campbell, center, and Louis Wille, right, receive commemorative pins from Robert Rouland, Lodge 87 deputy and treasurer. The presentation occurred at a dinner honoring veteran IOOF members at the lodge hall, 3906 Nameoki Road. A social evening was spent after the ceremony. Not shown in the photo is Roy Kinder, also a 50-year honoree.

Michael (Betty) Rutkowski of Granite City, Mrs. John (Nancy) Hendrickson, Lowell, Ind., Mrs. Mickey (Theima) Snow of St. John, Ind.; one brother, Floyd Johnson of Arizona; 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday. Details are given in the obituary column.

EXTENSIVE DAMAGE to the car of Ralph Henderson, 4532 Nameoki Road, at 30th Street and Madison Avenue at 5:05 p.m. yesterday after a head-on accident in which four persons were injured. Henderson was charged with improper lane usage. (Don Howard Photo)

Paddlers teen party Saturday

Teenage members of Paddlers Swim Club and their friends may attend the annual "Teen Party," set from 8 p.m. until 11:30 p.m. Saturday, at the pool site, 2121 Johnson Road. Tickets, costing $1.75 each, may be obtained at the pool entrance, according to Gayle McCormick, program director. Music for dancing will be provided by Crosswind, a seven-piece ensemble. Reservation deadline for "Adult Night" is Friday, July 1. The event is scheduled Saturday, July 9, when a steak dinner and Las Vegas-style party will take place.

Further information may be secured from Mrs. McCormick, at 931-0728, Leo Suarez, 876-2996, or Nancy Halvachs, 931-4433.

PRY APARTMENT DOOR

The door to her apartment was pried open and a burglar took a Polaroid camera valued at $17 and $8 cash, Susan Schubert, 2223 Edison Ave., reported Tuesday.

Gospel Mission services tonight

The Rev. Charles Williams, superintendent of The Sunshine Mission in St. Louis, will be the speaker tonight at 7 o'clock services at the Gospel Mission, 2014 E. 20th St. At Sunday's 7 p.m. service, the Rev. John Pithers of the First Assembly of God Church will be the guest minister. Church school classes will commence at 9 a.m. Sunday. Mrs. Bethel Davis, Gospel Mission superintendent, said all services and programs at the local mission are open to the public. Ample parking is available at the rear of the mission building.

OWNER FINDS CAR
Bob Koesterer, 2840 Iowa St., discovered at 12:25 a.m. Tuesday that his auto had been stolen from the parking lot of Tri-Mor Bowl. He checked the area and found the auto in a field at the south end of Briarcliff Drive.

Friendly Circle meeting

The Friendly Circle Class of Dewey Avenue United Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Grace Lensing, Tuesday at 10 a.m. for prayer and share time. Following the "Prayer and Share," the class went to Ravenelli's Restaurant for dinner. During the afternoon the class went to Colonial Haven Nursing Home to visit Mrs. Iva Nichols who is moving to Lancaster, Calif. on July 1. After a time of visiting Mrs. Nichols was presented a gift from the group. Members of the class participating in the activities of the day were, Mesdames Virgie Settle, Viola Brooks, Mary Beasley, Grace Lensing, Violet Miller, Madara Shaw, Lydia Adkinson, Lucy Testerman, Lora Hancock, Robbie Donley and a guest, Mrs. Sharon Watson.

Miss Rushing bride-elect

Announcement is being made of the engagement of Miss Deborah Jean Rushing and Brian Crow, by the bride-elect's parents, Mrs. Eurrell Rushing, 2065 Thirteenth St., and James Rushing of Tennessee.

Parents of the prospective groom are Mrs. Virginia Crow, 2424 Bryan Ave., and LeRoy Crow of St. Louis.

Both young people graduated from Granite City High School South. Miss Rushing is employed as a cashier at K-Mart Store, and also received a nurses aide certificate from St. Elizabeth Hospital, through the school co-op program.

Her fiancé is an employee of the St. Louis Coca-Cola Co. The engaged couple are completing plans for a Sept. 23 wedding to take place at Tri-City Park Tabernacle.

Janet Davinroy on Dean's List

Miss Janet Davinroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Davinroy, 1229 Klein St., Venice, has been named to the Dean's List in the College of Home Economics at Florida State University. Miss Davinroy attained the distinction for the 1976-77 academic year at the Tallahassee school, where she recently completed her junior year.

BETHROTHED. Miss Deborah Jean Rushing whose engagement to Brian Crow is being announced by her parents, Mrs. Eurrell Rushing of Granite City, and James Rushing of Tennessee. A Sept. 23 wedding is planned.

Veterans benefits used for college

Almost all the young men and women receiving Veterans Administration education benefits because of their parents' death or service-connected disability are using them to go to college.

VA figures show that 66,297 children and spouses of veterans whose deaths or total disability were service-connected were receiving VA education assistance as of the end of November last year.

Sons and daughters of veterans comprised 82 per cent of the total while the remaining 18 per cent consisted of spouses or the widows or widowers of veterans, VA said.

About 9 per cent of the sons and daughters taking training had some college when they applied for benefits, but almost eight out of ten of them had only a high school diploma.

Of the eligible spouses in training when the latest VA semi-annual review was made last November, 22 per cent did not have a high school diploma when they applied for benefits. VA noted that 77 per cent of all persons in training under provisions of the Dependents Educational Assistance program who had not completed high school when they first applied for assistance are now taking college level courses.

The agency said 89 per cent of the children of veterans in the program were going to school full-time, while 65 per cent of the spouses or widows and widowers were enrolled full-time.

Seek instructors in Red Cross swimming program for handicapped persons

Recruiting is now under way of individuals wishing to assist in the physically handicapped American Red Cross instructional swimming program which will begin on July 11 in Granite City at a private swimming facility.

The program of instruction is available for the physically handicapped person in the Quad-Cities area.

Exceptional swimming ability is not necessary to assist in the program. Specialized training will be given to interested individuals immediately prior to commencement of the program. Individuals may assist from one to four hours per day depending on their time schedule for the four week program.

"We had 29 people assisting in the program last year, ranging from high school students to housewives, to retired people and every step in between," commented Joanne Higgins, program director.

"We told them at the beginning that it would be hard work and they would invest a great deal of time for no compensation, but when the program concluded they all found that the amount of pride and satisfaction they got from it far surpassed anything they could take to the bank," she said.

Minimum age for assisting is 15 years old, although there is no maximum age. In addition to the staff, qualified lifeguards, also volunteers, will be in constant attendance.

Interested individuals may call the Red Cross office at 452-7184.

INFORMATION BY COMPUTER offers nearly instant service at all driver license facilities in the State of Illinois. Diane Gaines, a facility clerk in the Granite City Drivers License facility, copies information received on a renewal from a master computer in Springfield. The office at 1815 Edison Ave. is open Tuesdays through Saturdays from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

Earl Lazerson new provost, vice-president at SIUE

The appointment of Earl E. Lazerson, 46, of Edwardsville, as vice-president and provost of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was announced Monday by President Kenneth A. Shaw. The appointment is subject to approval by the SIU Board of Trustees.

The president said the appointment is effective immediately. Lazerson has been acting vice-president and provost since March 17, 1976. Lazerson, who has been a member of the SIUE faculty since 1968, was one of three persons recommended to the president by the Search Committee for Vice-President and Provost.

Other finalists were Leon E. Boothe, dean, College of Arts and Sciences, George Mason University, Fairfax, Va., and Joseph Satin, dean, School of Humanities, California State University at Fresno.

The search for the position was launched in January at the direction of President Shaw. More than 200 applications and nominations were received. Thirteen of the top-ranked candidates were interviewed at the St. Louis Airport; and five candidates were selected for campus visits in May.

EARL LAZERSON
SIUE vice-president

Lazerson, formerly dean of the School of Science and Technology, was named acting vice-president and provost after Andrew J. Kochman, who had held the position five years, was named acting president following the death of President John S. Rendleman on March 4, 1976.

Lazerson joined the SIUE faculty as an associate professor of mathematics. He was named chairman of the department of mathematics in 1972 and was promoted to professor and appointed dean of the School of Science and Technology in 1973.

Before his association with SIUE, Lazerson served on the faculties of Washington University, Brandeis University and the University of Michigan. He is a former researcher for the Institute for Defense Analyses in Princeton, N.J., and has participated in numerous projects and research activities in his field of specialization.

Lazerson is a native of Detroit. He earned a bachelor's degree from Wayne State University and a master's of arts from the University of Michigan. A former Fulbright Scholar at the University of Leiden in the Netherlands, his studies and research have been the basis for many advanced publications and papers in mathematics.

Lazerson is married and the father of two sons. Lazerson and his wife, Ann, reside at 412 Shady Lane in Edwardsville.

MAN INJURES WRIST

Walter Bursey, 25, of 1221 Logan Avenue, went to St. Elizabeth Hospital last week after hurting his left wrist in an auto accident. X-rays were taken and he was released.

LOOK HERE! At the base of the new cameras for the photo drivers license is a sign with a dot. All a person must do is sit in a chair, look at a dot, see a blinding flash and in a few minutes he receives a new photo on his driver's license. Dave Wolf, license examiner, is about to take a picture last week of a person renewing his driver's license. After July 1, photo identification cards for persons who do not have a drivers license, but want identification cards with their photos may receive one for a $5 fee at any Illinois Drivers License facility.

How to keep your family happy—while traveling

Planning a summer outing? If you're traveling with children, here are some tips to keep your travelers happy.

Plan for comfort from the start. Children will ride better when they are dressed in "action" clothing that doesn't bind or chafe in hot weather. Be prepared for changes in temperature, too.

For your own convenience, disposable or wash and wear items, especially for baby, help you maintain a cleaner traveling crew. Keep a plastic bag handy for those freshly washed items that aren't yet dry when it's time to move on.

One big traveling problem is the variance in activity needed by Mom and Dad and by the children. Mom and Dad may only need rest stops for coffee, but children need exercise and "shouting" contest breaks. Young children who aren't used to containing all their excess energy should have time to work it out. Scheduling outlets for their "get-up-and-go" will keep you all more relaxed.

Break the boredom of long trips by providing quiet diversions while riding. For "security" reasons, let your preschooler take along his favorite toy. It will provide him with something familiar to cling to while in strange surroundings or with strangers.

An emergency ration kit provides mid-morning and before-bedtime snacks to keep the children content. Cookies or snack crackers pack easily for vacation snacking.

Fruit, juice, canned meat and cheese spread or peanut butter make an excellent "instant" lunch. An "in-car" water supply can save unnecessary stops for thirsty children.

It's wise to serve children familiar foods while traveling. New and different foods away from home can easily upset a small child.

Always include a first-aid kit in your family's traveling gear. Children never seem to take a vacation from everyday emergencies.

Happy traveling.

Keep Department of Aging a separate entity—McPike

State Rep. Jim McPike (D-Alton) opposed a state proposal that the Department of Aging be included in an "umbrella agency" during a hearing last week by a state task force for governmental reorganization. The hearing, held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, was one of a series held throughout the state to allow citizens to comment on various proposals relating to changes in governmental systems and operations.

In a statement to the task force hearing, McPike said: "The Illinois Department of Aging was established on Nov. 9, 1973. The rationale for having a separate department for seniors is the same in 1977 as it was in 1973."

"There are 1.2 million people in Illinois over the age of 65 and 1.6 million people over the age of 60. In the coming years, these seniors will increase both in absolute numbers and in percent of the total population. They represent a unique group of individuals with almost identical problems and needs."

"Currently the Department of Aging administers a variety of programs on nutrition, health, income, transportation, recreation and general accessibility of services to seniors. In the coming years these programs will expand in scope and importance as they reach more and more people."

"Perhaps it would be difficult to state categorically that these services would definitely be weakened if the department became part of an umbrella agency. However, it can be said with a high degree of certainty that the programs will retain their current importance only if the department remains a separate and distinct entity."

"This in fact, is the essence of this issue. The Department of Aging enjoys cabinet level status. Seniors have been removed from the stigma of being associated with public assistance. They are extremely proud to have their own department and jealously guard the dignity it brings. Now the importance of their problems and the urgency of their needs is being threatened."

"From an organizational view, putting the Department of Aging within an umbrella agency is questionable. From a practical view it can not be justified. In setting priorities we must recognize that education, agriculture and transportation are no more important than senior citizens."

"They must approach the chief executive of Illinois on an equal footing. They must enjoy equal access to the resources of our state. They must have equal importance."

"There is only one way to accomplish these goals and that is to allow the Department of Aging to remain a separate agency and thus retain cabinet level status. On behalf of 1.6 million seniors in the state of Illinois, I strongly urge that this be done."

160 Girl Scouts at Day Camp

"Indian Summer" was the theme of Day Camp, sponsored by the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council, for scouts in the Granite City, Madison and Venice area held last week at Camp Torqua in Edwardsville. Attending the five-day session were 160 children from the Quad-City area, who participated in crafts on Indian dresses, jewelry, dances, music, and sign language, under the direction of Mrs. Olivia Parrish of Granite City.

Skill programs were provided for those interested in archery, trail signs and backpacking with a special event attending the Junior Olympics, canoeing, swimming and hiking at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The final day was termed "Indian Uprising" with all scouts taking part in the project.

Members of the Cadette Troops were involved in primitive camping, tepee building, lashing, and working with the younger scouts.

All Brownie and Girl Scouts became "braves" in many of the tribes. Brownies could select the False Face, Hidden Face, Dagger, Supedia or Great Buffalo Tribe and Juniors became members of the Sun-wolf, Vision, Running Elk, Spirit Land or Howling Moon Tribe while Cadettes were among the Kickapoo Tribe.

Chief Hunting Moon and Chief Mad Moon welcomed the scouts as they arrived by bus for the daily sessions held from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Hiring law offers tax credit

Passage of the Tax Reduction and Simplification Act of 1977 offers employers an extra tax credit for hiring disabled individuals who are participating in or who have completed a rehabilitation program as clients of the Illinois Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, James S. Jeffers, director of the state vocational rehabilitation agency, said last week.

"It's not a pay-off," Jeffers said, "but an extra inducement for employers to give the disabled person a chance to prove his or her ability, dedication and competence."

The extra credit can also be claimed when disabled veterans and long term unemployed are hired.

Continuing to explain the provisions of HR 3477, Jeffers urged employers to remember that the extra 10 per cent tax credit for hiring a disabled individual can be claimed only if the new employee was referred to the employer by the State Division of Vocational Rehabilitation.

"This provision will benefit all concerned," Jeffers said. "IDVR will refer to the employer job candidates equipped to do the available job. If we do not have a qualified applicant, we won't make the referral. By working with IDVR," the director continued, "the employer can also take advantage of our experience in modifying job sites and in correcting other environmental barriers which limit or prevent the hiring of qualified disabled persons."

"A cold hire is virtually an unknown quantity. Before we recommend a client, we do a plant survey and a job survey. We spend whatever time is necessary with the employer and with the immediate supervisor. When the referral is made it's truly 'selective placement' — one individual recommended for one job."

IDVR can also assist an employer with an affirmative action plan and with recommendations pertaining to environmental barriers which limit or prevent hiring qualified physically disabled persons.

"Since the extra credit is a hiring incentive, naturally it will increase employment opportunities for IDVR clients. We hope it will also serve as an incentive for disabled persons who are not clients of the agency and who could benefit from our services to come in and apply," Jeffers concluded.

The State Division of Vocational Rehabilitation provides counseling testing and job placement services to the physically and mentally disabled. The agency also can provide medical, diagnostic, educational and technical training services.

The first of three Tri-Cities United Way one-day workshops will be held Tuesday, June 28, at 9 a.m. at the Carpenters' District Council hall, 901 W. Chain of Rocks Road.

The overall goals of the workshops series are to strengthen each United Way agency by:

a. Acquainting all participating personnel with the theory and practice of planning, program evaluation, and priorities budgeting.

b. Assisting agencies to define goals, to develop planning schedules to attain goals, and to develop techniques to measure progress and evaluate programs.

Agency administrators and boards will attend.

The first workshop will focus primarily on the planning function but may include some aspects of program evaluation and budgeting," David Fox, planning and priorities chairman, has explained.

"There are not 'pat' answers or solutions. Following accepted discussion techniques, through free and open discussion, collectively we will develop answers and techniques best suited to our particular circumstances."

"We are expecting a total attendance of 45 to 50 and, from a review of those planning to attend, I am sure we will have an active, lively and fruitful day."

BREAK SCHOOL GLASS
Police were called to Washington School on West 20th Street at 11:10 p.m. Sunday on a report youths were breaking windows at the school. Officers noticed numerous windows had been broken, some on previous occasions. Three youths found nearby, ages 12 to 14, were questioned, but released pending further investigation.

"These reserves, considered in many instances to be well beyond the future needs of the corporation, provide us with the opportunity to capitalize on the strong demand for minerals — particularly coal, a vital energy source for our nation — which we foresee in the years ahead."

"The National Mineral Resources Division will further the most advantageous development, utilization and marketing of the corporation's extensive raw materials reserves," George A. Stinson, chairman, said.

Members of the club will meet at the beginning of the Madison County Bike Trail on Lake Drive near the railroad tracks and ride for seven miles and return.

Sponsors are being asked to donate a certain amount for each mile and the Lions Club members are soliciting as many sponsors as possible.

Funds will be used to help send blind and deaf children from Granite City to a special Illinois Lions Foundation camp, according to Lion Elmer L.

WASHINGTON BREAKFAST. K. Duane Rankin, left, administrator of Venice-Lincoln Technical Center, represented the Public Adult and Continuing Education organization on a delegation of Illinois education officials in Washington D.C. to discuss concerns about expiring federal legislation with the Illinois Congressional delegation and officials of Health, Education and Welfare. At right is Congressman Henry Hyde (R-Park Ridge). Representatives of 17 major education organizations accompanied officials from the State Board of Education and the Illinois Office of Education on the trip. A slide-tape presentation, shown at the breakfast, summarized a series of nine public hearings held this spring involving changes in federal programs. Particular concern was expressed for renewal of federal compensatory education funds, impact aid, adult education and block grants.

National Steel establishes mineral resource division

A new National Mineral Resources Division has been established by National Steel Corp., it was announced this week following a regular meeting of the firm's board of directors.

Richard E. Thompson, who has been serving as corporation vice-president, will become president of the new division, which will be responsible for the operations of all National Steel's divisions and subsidiaries engaged in mineral and raw materials activities.

In addition, it also will be responsible for supervision of the corporation's interests in other minerals firms in which it has a financial interest.

Thompson will also serve as vice-president of National Steel.

"The National Mineral Resources Division will further the most advantageous development, utilization and marketing of the corporation's extensive raw materials reserves," George A. Stinson, chairman, said.

Pontoon Lions plan awards at banquet meet

The Pontoon Beach Lions Club will install new officers at an awards banquet Monday at Peck's D-A-P restaurant and lounge, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Special honors will be given to the fire and police departments, junior firemen and Explorer Post 255.

"We want to honor those who protect our property, save our lives and serve our needs, while endangering their own life day to day," Donald D. Patrick, retiring Lions Club president, said.

Other awards to be presented are the Lion's Citizen Medal of Valor, Lion of the Year, and Pontoon Beach Citizen of the Year award.

Entertainment will be by Perry Hendrickson, guitarist and vocalist.

Wortham, chairman of the event.

Any individual, business or organization wishing to help the Lions with this project by sponsoring a rider may call the club president, Harley Davis, at 452-1513.

Stevenson, Percy pleased Wood is in FBI running

By LESTER BELL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

President Carter's selection of Federal Appeals Judge Harlington Wood Jr. of Illinois as one of five possible nominees to head the Federal Bureau of Investigation was warmly received in the offices of Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson and Sen. Charles H. Percy.

Mr. Carter told a news conference last week that his five finalists out of 235 candidates for FBI director are Wood, Judge of the U.S. 7th Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago; Sheriff William Lucas, Wayne County (Detroit), Mich.; Los Angeles District Attorney John Van De Camp; Associate Justice John Irwin of the Massachusetts Superior Court; and John Welch, special agent in charge of the FBI's Philadelphia office.

Stevenson was in Englewood Cliffs, N.J., to address a public policy seminar, but his aides said if Wood receives the nomination, Stevenson undoubtedly will support him in the senate as he has in the past.

Although Stevenson, as the Democratic Senator has the traditional prerogative of recommending Illinois nominees for federal posts to the incumbent Democratic President, he had no part in selecting Wood as one of the five remaining contenders, his aides pointed out.

A special Presidential Committee picked the five from among 235 contenders to succeed FBI Director Clarence Kelley, who is retiring at the end of this year.

When Wood's nomination for the appeals bench went to the Senate in May, 1976, Stevenson spoke highly of him.

Stevenson said Wood "throughout a lengthy and varied career has served with great distinction" and "is well qualified to serve on the court of appeals."

Percy, while Republicans held the White House, made recommendations for Illinois nominees to federal positions. Percy sponsored Wood's successful nomination to become one of the three deputy U.S. attorney's general, then on to federal bench for the Southern District of Illinois, and finally Wood's elevation to the Appellate bench.

Commenting on Wood's selection as a potential successor to Kelley, Percy said: "Harlington Wood is a distinguished federal judge who has served the legal profession with distinction in both the public and private sectors. He is a man of the highest personal and professional standards."

"He would be an excellent choice to serve in the important position of FBI director."

Hanging baskets should be watered frequently

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT
Extension Garden Adviser
Frequent watering and monthly fertilizing are the keys to keeping beautiful hanging baskets.

Baskets hanging under eaves do not benefit from the extra moisture of dew or light rain. Sun shining on the sides of the container warms the soil and speeds up evaporation of water from the soil.

Breezes surrounding the plant and container cause moisture evaporation from hanging plants than plants close to the ground or among other plants. All these factors make it tough for you to keep these baskets lush and green.

The best way to water hanging baskets is to soak them in a tub of water or the kitchen sink for a few minutes to thoroughly wet the soil, pot and moss. Drain for a few minutes and rehang.

In sizzling hot weather this may be three times a week, or maybe every day. Watch the plants closely to detect early stages of wilt. Your plants will do best if you can dip the plants before the plants show this first stage of wilting.

When it's impossible to dip the basket in order to water it, then water gently from the top with a sprinkler head attached to the hose. Add enough water to cause some leakage out the bottom. Water again just as the first wilting symptoms appear.

Fertilizing every month is the final ingredient to beautiful hanging baskets. Use a house plant fertilizer solution. Follow their recommendations! When watering from the top, add the solution with a watering can.

Lots of fertilizer and hot weather will produce the quality of grass you often see on golf course greens.

Meyer Zoyzia will thrive during the summer season when you fertilize and cut close. Established zoyzia lawns should be fertilized every June with a double application of lawn fertilizer. New plantings of Zoyzia should be fertilized every month, starting in June, to promote the steady growth you expect.

For the monthly applications in June, July, and August, use a lawn fertilizer and follow the bag recommendations.

Close cutting favors zoyzia while it weakens bluegrass and most weeds. Special mowers are often used to achieve the golf course cut of 1/2 to 3/4 inch long. Frequent cutting can easily produce a putting green effect during the summer months.

Shade and cold weather prevents zoyzia from becoming the sweetheart of every home owner. Zoyzia does not grow well in shade and turns brown in winter. Zoyzia is often grown as a backyard grass because its wear resistance and beauty is appreciated during the summer and its dormancy and yellow color is not seen during the winter.

Extension Farm Adviser
Double crop soybean variety plots have been planted on the Donald and Bob Hurselmeier farm.

The plots are located on the East side of Route 111 on School House Road. To get to the plots, take Route 111 South from I-270. School House Road is about two miles South of Route 102.

The plots were planted in wheat stubble. The herbicides used included Paraquat, Loxor and Surfilar. The varieties included in the plots are Calland, L-21, Amsoy-71, Custer, Clark-63, Pamona Mitchell, BTXP 33, Custer 71, Hisoy 340, Williams, Peterson 125, Wells, Bonus, Wayne, Woodworth and Kent.

Signs identifying the varieties will be placed on the plots later this summer.

Now is a good time to control weeds in fence rows, on ditch banks and in other non-crop areas. One of the best controls is a seeding of a desirable perennial grass such as tall fescue.

Hospital notes

Patients admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital Sunday:
Dale Love, 2042 Maple; Rose Ackinson, 2306 E. 20th; Alice Welch, 2042 Missouri; Louis Kraus, 1014 Iowa; Sam Shambro, 3143 Maryville; April Smith, 707 Kirkpatrick; Sonja Russell, 817 Hampden; Venice; Shirley Dunn, 15 Moorland; Martha Haldeman, 19 Chain of Rocks; Dorothy Grooms, 2805 Oregon; Robert Knobloch, 2211 Lincoln; Melvin Richardson, Rural Route Two, Box 748; Lee Wood, 2020 Ames.
Emma Talbert, Collinsville; Carolyn Williams, 1109 Bissell; Venice; Betty Boston, 13 Lily; Pam Perkins, E. St. Louis; Hazel Riding, 4792 Nameoki; Mary Hines, 710 State, Madison; Gloria Heintz, 1220 W. Poynton; Billie Bailey, 1820 Bremen; Joan Tognarelli, Collinsville; Richard Cooper, Rural Route One, Box 1221.
Mary Zanger, Edwardsville; Shirley Travis, 2708 Kirkpatrick; Philip Wells, Brookline; Constance Knowles, Alton; Robert Dagon, 2127 Edison; Betty Townsley, 2924 Fortune; Laurie Morman, 2905 Buxton; Christopher Gushleff, 1671 Fourth; Darrin Willis, Collinsville; Danah Barnhart, 3921 Gaslight; Diane Ellis, 118 Paul.

Once well established, the grass competes very well to prevent growth of most weeds. It doesn't need to be mowed. Just let it produce seed. It provides good wildlife cover and protects the soil. Thus, it is much preferred to soil sterilants which leave the soil bare.

Where you don't have a well established, desirable grass growing, you can provide temporary control of grasses and broadleaf weeds with chemicals. It is recommended that you use five pounds of Dowpon with one quart of 2, 4-D. Mixed with 50 gallons of water, this should be enough to treat an acre of fence row. This acre would be a four foot wide strip two miles long.

The Madison County extension service wheat variety plots are located on the Bill Dorsey farm near Moro this year.

Ron Hines, Associate Extension Adviser, has been checking the varieties in the plots for disease problems. He reports the following disease problems in the variety plots for the three most popular wheat varieties grown in Madison County.

He found that Arthur 71 has been damaged by septoria leaf blotch. Abe has been damaged by scab disease and Oasias has been damaged by both septoria leaf blotch and scab disease. Abe, Arthur 71 and Oasias are the three main wheat varieties grown in Madison County.

Wheat can have 10 to 15 per cent more feed value per bushel than corn in balanced cattle rations because of its increased protein and weight.

Soft winter wheat will equal corn in energy content but may contain 2 to 3 per cent more crude protein than corn. However, the extra protein has value only if less money is spent for protein supplement.

If beef producers replace half the corn in the finishing ration with wheat, they may only need half as much supplemental protein. However, because protein supplements usually supply additives, minerals and Vitamin A, providing free choice minerals or doubling additives, vitamin and mineral content in the supplement may be necessary when reducing supplement.

If it is suggested you use no more than 50 per cent wheat in the grain mixture. Producers should crack or roll wheat before feeding it to cattle.

Dick Clark hosts MRF rock history show tomorrow

(SIEU News Service)
When Dick Clark and his "Good Ol' Rock 'N' Roll" show come to the Mississippi River Festival tomorrow evening, it will be more than just nostalgia for festivalgoers who come to the MRF site, on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. It will be a history lesson on the origins of rock.

Clark is considered a history lesson by himself. The man who

D. Keith Nagy earns degree

D. Keith Nagy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Nagy Jr., 3220 Wabash Ave., Granite City has been awarded the Doctor of Optometry degree at the 134th commencement of Illinois College of Optometry, in Chicago.

Dr. Nagy is a graduate of Granite City High School. He fulfilled his pre-optometry requirements at Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., where he received a bachelor of arts degree in mathematics in 1975.

During his four years of professional study at ICO, Dr. Nagy played on the school basketball team in the Chicago metropolitan area inter-professional school basketball league.

Dr. Nagy will enter military service as an optometrist in the U.S. Army.

Illinois College of Optometry, founded in 1872, is one of the profession's oldest and largest educational institutions, with facilities for both classroom and clinical instruction and research. Its alumni group numbers approximately 10,000 optometrists, almost 40 per cent of all O.D.s in the country.

became host of "American Bandstand" in 1956 (and still is, 21 years later) has done more than most, and perhaps more than anyone else, to promote and support rock and roll music, both on television and off. The list of performers who got their first big push from "Bandstand" is book-length already, and still growing.

But his performers on Friday night are the ones to listen to, the founders of rock and roll with his first hit, "Maybellene," he has kept it going since with a long string of successes.

His impact is shown as much by the way virtually everyone else in the field pays him homage as by his commercial success with rock fans. Everyone from the Beatles and Rolling Stones through the Beach Boys and the stars of Motown have sung his songs and called him the founder of their field.

Berry's early blending of boogie woogie and rhythm and blues, using his guitar solos and on-stage physical, perambulations to excite the crowd, has given birth to the music form that Dick Clark's show celebrates.

Gary "U.S." Bonds, from the same basic mold as Berry, is one of those who took the early music that Berry and others were performing and brought his own flavor to it. "Quarter to Three" was one of the early classics of rock and roll. The simple lyrics combined with heavy beat and a lot of vocal and instrumental energy to make a sound both listenable and danceable — and the kids watching "American Bandstand" all over the country loved it.

Bobby Vee started in 1959 with "Suzy Baby," and went on from there to amass a list of some 37 singles on the Hot 100, including the teen croon, "Take Good Care of My Baby," a lost love lament that set the stage for a host of teen idols to follow ever since.

Along with all his hits, songs like "Run to Him," "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes," "Come Back When You Grow Up," "Beautiful People," "Rubber Ball," and dozens more, Vee has contributed to the image of the teen croon idol. Given more talent than most of the rest of that brand of rock, Bobby Vee has sometimes suffered from bad timing, but never from bad music.

As one critic put it, "If Bobby Vee had come along in 1956 he might have been Buddy Holly. And if he'd come to Tin Pan Alley in 1967, Bobby Vee might be John Denver now."

In 1972 he'd have been Kenny Loggins or Elton John. But 1960, 61, 62, and most of 63 were not good years for male vocalists, in terms of survival at least.

Yet, Vee did survive, and helped form a style of rock that still goes on with the new teen crooners of today. The program will begin at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow.

FOUNDING FATHER of rock and roll music, Dick Clark, will host an evening of "Good Ol' Rock 'N' Roll" at the Mississippi River Festival tomorrow evening. The show includes Chuck Berry, Gary "U.S." Bonds and Bobby Vee.

Robert Kindles mark 25th year

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kindel, 3877 Rodney Drive, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at an open house reception held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fallon, 4840 Warwick Ave. Mrs. Fallon and Mrs. Kindel are sisters.

Preceding the social afternoon the honoree's renewed their vows in a ceremony performed by the Rev. Greg Dickerman of Oaklawn, City, Ind., a nephew of the couple.

The original attendants, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil (Sue) Nichols, a brother-in-law and sister of Mr. Kindel, were present for the service and reception.

Mrs. Kindel was attired in a formal length pastel blue crepe dress and Mrs. Nichols appeared in a long pink gown. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

Decorations in a silver motif were carried out throughout the Fallon home, including vases of pink rose buds and silver baskets holding pink blossoms.

A buffet luncheon was served by the hosts to approximately 100 guests during the afternoon and evening.

Third birthday of Jennifer Wortham

Jennifer Lynn Wortham celebrated her third birthday at a party given during the weekend by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wortham, 2595 Boyle Ave.

The guests were entertained outdoors on the patio decorated with pink rose buds and silver signs in keeping with a Sesame Street theme.

A decorated cake, party favors and table appointments were also carried out in the party theme.

Games were played and prizes awarded to the winners after the honoree opened her gifts.

Refreshments were served by the hosts, assisted by Jeanne Wilbur and Linda Stearns.

Guests attending were Shelly and Cheri Wilbur, Matthew and David Stearns, Dixie Price, Christine Mills, Davy Mills and a cousin, Lori Wortham.

Diane Daugherty and John Curtin are wed

St. Elizabeth Roman Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding on June 11 of Miss Diane Kay Daugherty, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daugherty Sr., 3004 Myrtle Ave., and John Andrew Curtin Jr., of Richmond Heights, Mo.

Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Curtin Sr., reside in Bilozi, Miss.

Father Kevin Becker performed the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, before an altar adorned with bouquets of white, purple and lavender blossoms, interspersed with greenery.

Sandra Sunderlik sang, "All Over The World" preceding the arrival of the bridal party.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the former Miss Daugherty, chose an A-line style white organza gown designed with an Empire bodice with a high neckline enhanced with orchid and purple rosettes.

Tiers of organza ruffles created the short sleeves and the slightly full skirt fell softly into a chapel train.

She wore a mantilla veil edged with Venice lace attached to a Venice lace hat accented with a bow and streamers.

She carried a double cascade of white carnations, lavender daisies, dark purple baby's breath, festooned with tiny purple and white ribbon streamers.

Maid of honor Miss Carol Avedisian wore a dark purple sleeveless gown complemented with a matching full length long sleeved coat.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. Cindy Worthen and cousins of the bride, Misses Cindy and Connie Sunderlik and Miss Karen Mabry, selected identically designed dresses in various shades of purple.

Each attendant wore a purple lace picture hat accented with a garland of lavender daisies and purple baby's breath.

Their colonial bouquets were of purple carnations and purple baby's breath, centered with a cluster of pastel lavender daisies, tied with lace streamers.

The flower girl Melissa

Hamm, was dressed in a white frock trimmed with purple ribbon on the bodice and a long coat. She also wore a wide brim hat with purple streamers.

She carried a white wicker basket filled with purple and lavender blossoms.

Colby Mayes, the bride's cousin, was the ringbearer. The groom chose his brother, Kevin Curtin, as best man. Nick Dallas, Richard Dolan, a cousin of the groom, Robert Daugherty Jr., a brother of the bride and Tom Hammelman were groomsmen.

Escorting the guests to their seats were Robert Juracek, Paul Jones, Dave Fraley, Dave Eads and Brad Harmon.

Serving as usherettes were Joan Avedisian, Colleen Derby, Jane Curtin, a sister of the groom, and candelights were Sandra Sunderlik, a cousin of the bride, Claire Curtin, the groom's sister, and Karen Nune, a cousin of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Daugherty chose a formal pink gown with long sleeves and the groom's mother, Mrs. Curtin, appeared in a floor length dress in mint green. Both wore white carnation corsages with purple baby's breath accents.

A reception was held at the Moose Lodge in Wood River, and the rehearsal dinner hosted by the groom's parents was served at the Collinsville Holiday Inn.

The newly married couple are residing at 4050 Kathy Drive, following a wedding trip to Kentucky Lake.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of South High School and is now employed as a secretary at John Cochran Hospital, St. Louis. The groom was graduated in 1972 from Springfield College, Mohali, Ala., where he received a B.S. degree. He is employed as a social worker at John Cochran Veteran Hospital.

Joyce Frerker becomes Mrs. Alan J. Hennrich

The wedding of Miss Joyce M. Frerker, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Frerker, 144 Hillcrest Drive, Collinsville, and Alan J. Hennrich, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hennrich, 3258 Franklin Ave., was solemnized on April 23, at St. Peter and Paul Church, Collinsville.

Father Jack Frerker performed the double ring ceremony at 7 p.m. in a candlelight setting.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown, fashioned of white brocade satin. The basque bodice featured a V-neckline and was accented with rows of seed pearls on the center front and across the Juliet style sleeves.

Her skirt fell gracefully from the waistline into a close fitting style at the knees and terminated with a lower flare and circular train.

She held a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, dried baby's breath and greenery.

Honor attendant was JoAnne Roberson and bridesmaids included Jean Keel, Jean Frerker and Cathy Janish.

They chose ivory chiffon

Empire style dresses created with a tiny ruffled lace trim at the high necklines and marking the sheer square yokes, and long full sleeves. Copper color satin cummerbunds accented the waistlines and A-line skirt, which were encircled with gathered flounces at the hems.

Lisa Bank served as flower girl and Chris Keel was the ringbearer.

The adult attendants and flower girl held bouquets of yellow roses, stephanotis, baby's breath and greenery. The groom chose Larry Zotti as his best man. Tom Hennrich, John Frerker, Kenny Janish, Joseph and Terry Frerker, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Guests were received by the newly married couple at a reception held at the Voigt Hall at St. Stephens Church, Caseyville. The rehearsal dinner was served at the Collinsville Round Table Restaurant.

The bride is employed as a cosmetologist at The Works, Inc., Belleville, and is a graduate of Coiffure School of Beauty, Belleville.

Her husband is in the U.S.

Jr. Garden Club hosts flower show

The third annual flower show of the Fair Oaks Junior Garden Club was conducted during the weekend at the home of Joel Donley, 3149 Myrtle Ave., followed by a pizza party.

A short business meeting was held with Jill Donley, president, presiding.

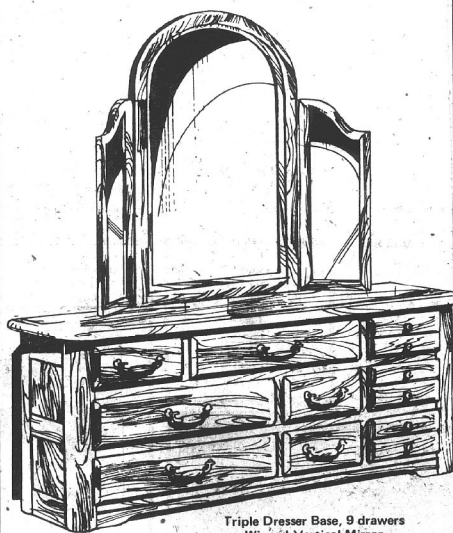

During the afternoon Mrs. Wilmer Winter served as judge of the show entries. Those participating who won ribbons for their exhibits were Brad Busch a second place award for a pink yarrow; Darren Freck, first for baby's breath; Debbie Hendon, second, rose arrangement; Mary Cavins, second, pain tree; Joel Donley, first, day lily and Jill Donley, first for larkspur and a second for polka dot plant.

Others present were Nancy Griffith, Jennifer Griffith, Mary Lou Metcalf, Mrs. Judy Donley and guests, Michelle McAnish and Julie Donley.

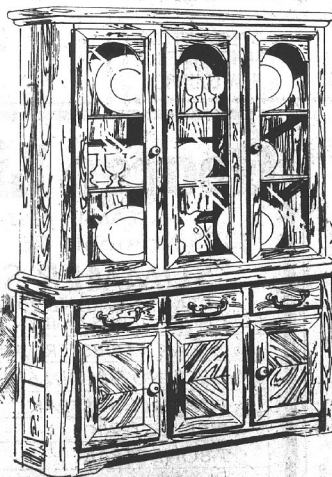

Plans were completed by the group to host a swim party at the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Tower Lake.

Navy Reserves. They are now residing in Caseyville, following a wedding trip to Florida.

Governor to attend GC Steel program

Granite City Steel has completed the largest industrial wastewater treatment plant ever built in the St. Louis area and will officially mark this event July 7.

Governor James R. Thompson of Illinois will meet officers of Granite City Steel and National Steel Corporation and community leaders at the new facility for a brief ceremony and inspection tour at 2 p.m. July 7.

The advanced, highly instrumented plant has been designed to meet future as well as present clean water standards.

It applies third-stage treatment to water from Granite City Steel stabilization basins before discharge into Horseshoe Lake — much cleaner than when it originally entered the plant's water system via a pumping station on the Chain of Rocks Canal.

Illinois faces $140 million loss in federal school aid

Illinois school districts will be short $140 million if federal aid to education expires this year, state officials told the Congressional delegation last week.

Jack Witkowski, chairman of the Illinois State Board of Education, and Joseph M. Cronin, Illinois state superintendent of schools, were in Washington to report to Illinois senators and congressmen and federal education officials the results of nine statewide public hearings on the expiring Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Witkowski told a news conference that the "chief concern" emerging from the Illinois hearings was that "Congress mandates certain requirements but does not back them with the necessary funds."

He said Congress apparently is thinking of extending the act for one year instead of five as desired by educators.

He and Cronin estimated that Illinois will be short at least $90 million in funds for disadvantaged children and $50 million to educate the handicapped children up to 21 years of age.

Cronin said he is "not counting on state dollars" to bridge the $140 million gap because Gov. James Thompson "has said this is the year of austerity."

"We think we can get through this year," said Witkowski.

"We must plan for next year or we'll be in trouble."

"When you have both a state and federal shortfall, it's difficult," Cronin observed, pointing out the necessity of medium-sized cities to resort to referenda to raise property taxes to meet school deficits.

The officials were asked what happens if aid is appreciably reduced. Witkowski said "programs may have to be sharply curtailed." Cronin said there could be "a recurrent loss of teachers ... down another thousand."

They were critical of the Congressional requirement linking funds for disadvantaged children, Title I, to the low-income neighborhoods.

Witkowski pointed out that "the money does not follow the child" to the newly integrated schools.

"We want it to follow the child, not remain tied to the location from where they come."

They also objected to requirements that health care and board and room for disadvantaged children be charged to federal-aid-to-education funds. They believe such expenses should be underwritten by "other providers," not the school system.

Cronin said Illinois will not reduce funds for the special education of the handicapped, but the state would like more "flexible rules."

He said whether the state accepts or turns down the money, it is required to provide an education for all handicapped children because they have a civil right to an education.

He noted that Illinois in some instances "pays full tuition" (for the handicapped in special circumstances), and that raises the cost considerably.

If Title I funds are curtailed for the economically disadvantaged children, this could mean a cutback in such features as reduced class size, teacher aides, remedial tutoring, child-parent centers, and other programs designed to overcome their disadvantages, they pointed out.

CYCLIST INJURED

David Painter, 19, of 2134 Benton Avenue, went to St. Elizabeth Hospital early this week after being in a cycling accident. He was found lying in the street but could not remember what had happened. He suffered lacerations to the right side of his head and abrasions to the right knee. X-rays were taken and he was admitted for observation.

National effort to find hypertension treatment

We are hearing much these days about high blood pressure, known medically as hypertension.

For several years concerned national programs to discover and treat this most common of human ills have been under way, and the American Medical Association and others have kept up the educational push.

What is blood pressure? A pamphlet from the AMA explains that your heart and blood vessels make up your body's blood distribution (circulatory) system, upon which all life processes depend. Under pressure, your blood carries food and oxygen to and removes waste products from every cell in your body.

Blood pressure is maintained by your heart in your arteries, and blood is pumped through your lungs where it picks up a fresh supply of oxygen and eliminates carbon dioxide. It then flows to the left side of your heart and is ready for another trip through your body.

What causes high blood pressure? In most cases the answer is not known. In at least 90 percent of the people with high blood pressure no underlying disorder can be found. These people are said to have "essential hypertension."

In the other 10 percent, some of the causes are diseases of the kidneys, conditions affecting the adrenal glands atop each kidney, narrowing of the body's largest artery (aorta), defects in other arteries, and disorders of the nervous system.

Whatever its cause, untreated hypertension can do irreparable damage to vital body organs and result in early death. The heart is the organ most commonly damaged. The higher the pressure, the harder the heart must work.

Hypertension also contributes to fatty deposits in the arterial walls (atherosclerosis). Thus the blood supply to the heart will diminish. This change may result in chest pain on exercise (angina) or even in serious injury to part of the heart muscle (myocardial infarction, or heart attack).

How can you tell if you have high blood pressure?

Unless you see your doctor, the chances are you can't. Hypertension usually is detected during a routine physical examination.

An estimated 23 million Americans have high blood pressure. Probably only half of them are aware of it. High blood pressure and hypertensive heart disease cause thousands of deaths annually, and contribute to strokes, heart attacks and kidney failure.

High blood pressure can be treated successfully and kept under control in almost all cases. Drug therapy and alterations in life style (quit smoking, control tension, watch your diet, exercise moderately) can keep high blood pressure from killing you.

SNEAK PREVIEW

See our features.
Because there are just too many great features to list, you're invited to a special Open House, where you can see them for yourself. Some will be obvious, like beautiful ceramic tile baths and rugged Weyerhaeuser siding. Others will be less obvious, like super-dense insulation and 100% copper plumbing. But all will demonstrate Wausau Homes quality materials and workmanship.

Hear our price.
One of the nicest features about a Wausau Home is its value. Dollar-for-dollar, you won't find a better home. So stop in at our Open House and let us help you find all the home you've been looking for.

GRANITE CITY BOARD OF REALTORS

Present the following items for you
THINKING OF SELLING YOUR OWN HOME?

Can you set a fair and reasonable asking price? You don't want to ask too much and scare people away. Worse yet, you don't want to ask too little.

Here's the first place your REALTOR can help. He's constantly up-to-date on market demand, seasonality of sales, location and the hundred and one other variations that alter your home's value.

A skilled REALTOR knows all about these things. Most important, he knows people.

LITTLE THINGS MEAN A LOT.
Selling a house involves many details. There are a hundred little things to be done.

Unless you have a mind like a computer, you'll need a REALTOR to get everything done and keep it straight. He and your attorney will guide you through this tangle.

BEST SELLERS.
Maybe you decide to sell your own home anyway. You know the needs and desires of your prospective buyers. And you know what so say, how to present your home to sell them. Right?

Wrong.
A REALTOR is trained in the art of house salesmanship. (And it is an art.) His study of sales techniques has shown him how to get the indecisive buyer to make up his mind; how to close the sale. In fact, he's gone to school to find out. After all, selling is what it's all about.

A REALTOR knows just about all there is to know about financing. He works very closely with all kinds of financial institutions. He knows their methods and requirements.

Very simply, a REALTOR can help your buyer find the money he needs to buy your house.

ENERGY SAVER SALE! INSULATE NOW!

Remember the High Heating Bills Last Winter? Save money now . . . by cutting Summer Cooling Bills! Why wait? The way fuel costs are rising, you're probably paying the price of insulation . . . when it could be paying for itself!!

FIBERGLAS INSULATION

OWENS CORNING
FIBERGLAS

Insulation is cheaper than oil . . .
or gas, or electricity.

ROLL TYPE

Bring your attic insulation up to six inches, and save up to $100 a year on your heating bills. Beat rising fuel costs by spending a day in your attic.

STORM DOORS & WINDOWS

Your investment in properly installed storm windows and doors will pay for themselves in less than 10 years and thereafter return you an annual dividend of nearly 15% on your investment. Storm windows and doors are as effective in reducing heat gain in summer as they are in reducing heat loss in winter.

PRESSURE TREATED LANDSCAPE TIMBERS

Landscape timbers provide attractive yet functional landscape edging. They blend attractively into residential, commercial & recreational landscape treatments. Pressure treating with C.C.A. (Chromated Copper Arsenate) wood preservative keeps the timber safe from decay & fungus attack for years. This is a 'full treatment' process which dries the preservative deep into the wood fibers, rather than surface dipping. Installation is easy & fast. Timber weight is approx. 46-lbs. approx. measure 3 1/2" x 5" x 8' long.
